WARM RUGS FOR HOME

Island City rag carpet weavers are busy now making ten handsome rugs which are to be sent by the Union Sunday School of Island City to the orphans' home in Portland as a Thanksgiving gift. This Sunday school yearly sends a box to the little fatherless and motherless children of Portland. This year the box will be better than ever before, for in addition to the candies, cakes, and many other goodies there will be ten warm, bright rugs. These rugs will be very welcome to the home as there are four new dormitories just completed, and furnishings are much in need.

Music in the City.

The spirit of the present age is far too strenuous to admit of all that would be present and profitable. The survival of the fittest must make the selections. One of the things this law is fostering in La Grande this winter is music. The band is flourishing and growing in numbers, an orchestra has been organized, and a splendid chorus has been organizedshrdlucaoinrdluuu is being trained in one of the prominent churches. With a strong choral union composed of the singers of all creeds or social connections the musical needs of the city would be well provided for. Under the auspices of such a society great musicians could be brought here for concerts, and in other ways the interests of the musical life of the city fostered. Come on! Who will take the first step in the right direction.
