Boozer Rejoins PCC Staff

James C. Boozer has rejoined the staff of Portland Community College as coordinator of personnel services, according to Roy L. Lindsay, vice-president for administrative services.

Boozer, who is based at the college's Ross Island Center, has replaced Randall L. Boose, who left PCC to accept a position in personnel at the Metropolitan Service District.

First hired by PCC in 1970, Boozer served as a work experience coordinator and later as coordinator of staff employment. In 1978, he went to work for Portland General Electric Co., where he served as an employee relations specialist.

Boozer left PGE in 1983, to accompany his wife Alcena when she attended the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Boozer later was ordained a priest of the Episcopal church. While in the San Francisco Bay area, Boozer worked in personnel relations for Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

He returned to PCC in the summer of 1984 as a job developer and pre-employment training skills instructor in the refugee employment project.

The Rev. Alcena Boozer currently serves Episcopal mission churches at Clatskanie and Birkenfeld. She is also a full-time administrator of Project Return for Portland School District No. 1.

The couple has two sons, Bentley, 23, who lives in Portland, and Clarke, 22, a senior at Oregon State University.

Boozer has a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Portland, and has completed numerous management training seminars offered over the years by colleges, private industry and the U.S. Forest Service.

The family resides in the Rose City district of Portland.

Sanctuary Coalition Rededication

Thursday, February 13, 1986 has been set aside by the Portland Sanctuary Coalition as a time of rededication and recommitment to the work of the Sanctuary movement. Focus of this activity will be a worship service to be held at St. Andrew Catholic Church, 806 N.E. Alberta Street, Portland at 7:30 p.m. Participants in the service will include representatives of the four Coalition churches: St. Andrew, Centenary-Wilbur United Methodist, St. Mark Presbyterian and Multnomah Friends Meeting. The Coalition is sheltering a Guatemalan family of eight.

Local Sanctuary leaders anticipate the rededication ceremony will coincide closely with the conclusion of the trial of twelve Sanctuary workers in Tucson, Arizona. The twelve are accused by the federal government of illegally assisting and harboring refugees from El Salvador and Guatemala.

In rededicating themselves to the purpose of the Sanctuary movement, Coalition members intend to call the public's attention to the current escalation of the U.S. government's involvement in Central America.

A reception will follow the ceremony in the Community Center adjacent to the church. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend.

Rainbow Coalition

The public is invited to a Portland Rainbow Coalition Meeting Tuesday, February 11th, 7:30 p.m., Maranatha Church, 1222 N.E. Skidmore. Enter by the 13th Ave. entrance. On the Agenda will be '86 Rainbow Strategy, News from the National Rainbow Organization, Task Force Plans, Grass Roots Precinct Organizing, and Proposals for a State Health Plan. Childcare and Refreshments provided. Rainbow Message Phone 241-6009.

Will Your Bank Give You A Credit Card?
Our's Will.

MasterCard VISA

Guaranteed Regardless of Credit History
In fact over 95% of our applicants are approved. Divorce, Bankruptcy, bad credit or no credit won't disqualify you from enjoying the prestige and conveniences a credit card provides.
Through our UNIQUE program, Office To Go, Portland, represents financial institutions looking for new customers. One of the best ways of attracting new customers is to give them a free gift. Rather than give you a mixer or cash bonus—something you may or may not use, our institution gives you something you need.

How The Program Works
Simply open an interest-bearing account with $300 or more for each card with the card-issuing institution. It's federally insured and pays 5¾% interest. The opening balance will determine your initial credit limit. (You can increase your limit at any time by adding to your savings account—up to $2000 per card.) After 12 months your credit card account will be reviewed. If your payments were made in a timely fashion, the savings account requirement may be dropped or your credit limit increased. So you can close the savings account and keep the credit card.

How to Get Your Mastercard or Visa
Simply fill out the form below and return it to us. You must be 18 or older. The fee covers one or both cards and is refunded if your application is rejected. We will arrange to have a final application sent to you. If you are self-employed or are a full time student you will then be billed a fee of $25 for the additional processing your application requires. When you return the final application, you will receive a signature card to open your savings account with a designated savings and loan. Your deposit will be made directly to the savings and loan institution. This federally insured account pays the usual 5¾% interest.

Get Instant Emergency Cash
As with any Visa or Mastercard credit card you can get a cash advance at any one of thousands of banks worldwide. You won't be tying up the money you may need because you'll find that money is even more accessible to you than it is in your present savings account.

The Gift That Keeps On Giving
As soon as you complete the order form you begin establishing a credit identity that can improve your life and grow to fit your needs.

Gentlemen,
I'd rather have a credit card than a blender.
