NITRATE STRIKE SERIOUS

Bloodshed and Tumult Resulting.

30,000 Men Out of Work.

VALPARAISO, Dec. 21.—The strike of the nitrate workers has already borne fruit in bloodshed and death and is daily growing worse. At Lagunas yesterday there was an encounter between troops and strikers, in the course of which seven men were killed and 16 wounded.

At Iquique one man was killed and seven were wounded in an encounter with the authorities. A censorship has been established at Iquique. The strikers now number not less than 30,000 men and no work is being done anywhere in the Antofogasta, Mejillones and Caletabura districts.

Charles Abrahm, of Dayton.

DAYTON, Wash., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Charles Abrahm died Friday night at the home of his son, J. E. Abrahm, in Smith Hollow, after a short illness. Mr. Abrahm came to Oregon in 1864, where he remained a short time before moving to Washington.

20 YEARS HERE

Our force is so organized that we can do your entire crown, bridge and plate work in a day if necessary. This will be appreciated by people from out of town. You may have your teeth extracted in the morning and go home at night with new ones.

POSITIVELY PAINLESS EXTRACTION FREE WHEN PLATES OR BRIDGES ARE ORDERED.

We remove the most sensitive teeth and roots without causing pain. No students, no uncertainty, no bungling; only the most scientific and careful treatment. Our Bridge and Plate Work is perfect; 20 years' continuous practice has made this possible.

EXAMINATIONS FREE AND INVITED.

When desired you can have T. P. Wise or my personal service.

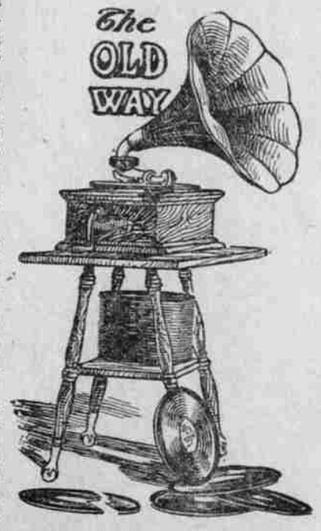
$25 RECORD CABINET ABSOLUTELY FREE!

The Oregonian's Great Offer Open to Every Old and New Subscriber for 30 Days Only



Our readers have not forgotten The Oregonian's grand Holiday offering last year, through which thousands secured a splendid $25 talking machine absolutely free, through our co-operative plan with Eilers Piano House. This year we have again arranged with this great musical establishment a still more attractive offer, which should interest every music-lover in the Northwest and every home which has a talking machine.

To every one subscribing to The Daily and Sunday Oregonian for 6 months, paying for same at the rate of 75 cents per month in advance, and agreeing to purchase, within the period of six months, from Eilers Piano House, $25 worth of talking machine records, disc or cylinder, of any standard make, we will give, absolutely free, a beautifully finished, thoroughly first-class Record Cabinet.

Every Oregonian subscriber, old or new, may thus obtain one of these splendid record cabinets without a cent of extra cost. Delivery of these cabinets will be made upon payment of the first month's subscription to The Oregonian and as soon as one dozen records have been purchased from Eilers Piano House. Or, if desired, the cabinets will be delivered as a Christmas gift later. These record cabinets may be had in a choice of ten different handsome styles and a choice of four different woods—quarter-sawed, weathered or golden oak and mahogany finish. Notice the window display at Eilers. This great offer should interest every newspaper reader, every present Oregonian subscriber and every talking-machine owner. Old subscribers may renew their subscriptions and may participate in this grand offer the same as new subscribers. Every one who wants all the news, all the time, first and most authentic, most complete and comprehensive, will find it in The Oregonian. Subscribe now, as this offer is good for thirty days only.
