LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Miss Ethel Smith, of Portland, returned to her home today, following a brief visit here at the home of A. Meyers.

Miss Acarilla Beckwith, who had been teaching school at Cove during the past term, left this morning for her home in Portland. Miss Beckwith spent a few days here with her friend, Miss Kay Neill, following the closing of her school.

H. E. Cook returned last night from Baker, where he had been for a couple of days on state land board business.

Miss Birgie Byrd of Cove Point, has accepted a position in the U. S. land office in this city and assumed her duties today.

Mrs. Tom Nicholson, who had been attending school at the O. A. C. during the past terms, arrived home from Corvallis this morning.

Miss Estelle Crarbill returned this morning from Corvallis, Salem and Portland, where she has been visiting friends for the past couple of weeks.

Mrs. W. Ford returned to La Grande this morning from Boise, Idaho, where she has been for a short time visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stevens and other friends.

F. V. Martin, of Spokane, is in the district this week looking into fruit crop prospects. He is field manager for the Earl Fruit Company of the Northwest. Mr. Martin states that there is a good outlook for a fine apple market this year.

Clarence P. Smith, of Elgin, has signed on with Co. E, Dale Wingard, of the Marine Recruiting office, Sommer building, for a trip to Europe, under the special enlistment offer recently made by the Marine Corps. He leaves this evening for Portland and when they will be sent direct to Quantico, Va. Mr. Smith was a member of this year's graduating class of the Elgin high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston, who had been visiting at Pilot Rock for a couple of weeks, returned this morning to La Grande.

Miss Rachel Sawyer returned this morning from Portland, where she had been visiting her sister over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew of Mansfield, registered at the Foley yesterday and are spending a couple of days in La Grande. Mr. Bartholomew is a prominent sheep raiser of the State of Idaho.

Mrs. Thomas, caretaker of the Foley flats, received word this morning that his two sons, Rolland and Elmer Thomas, expect to reach home by the first of July. They enlisted in the very early part of the war with the Pendleton cavalry company, which was afterward transferred to the artillery. They had been in France over a year and a half and were "in the thick of it" in the drives last year. Elmer, the younger of the two, was a gas victim last August but the fact was kept away from the folks at home until after he had recovered.

Does he forget to kiss you when he leaves in the morning?

Does he neglect to tell you occasionally that he still loves you?

Does he fail to compliment you on a made-over hat or dress?

Has he reached the point of just taking you for granted—like his breakfast or the monthly bills?

NO DATE FOR STRIKE OF TELEGRAPHERS

(By Associated Press to The Observer)

WASHSINGTON, June 2.—President Konenkamp, of the commercial telegraphers' union, stated today that no date had been set for a nation-wide telegraphers' strike. The threatened walkout at Atlanta is pronounced a purely local affair. Burleson simultaneously announced that if telephone operators at Atlanta had been dismissed due to their union affiliations they would be reinstated and the responsible telephone officials disciplined.

WEATHER FORECAST

PORTLAND, June 2.—For Oregon, cooler Tuesday, gentle south to west winds.

A. S. GEDDES DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

BODY TO BE TAKEN TO HOME IN PRESTON, IDAHO

Deceased Was Formerly Well Known Resident of La Grande—Funeral Will Be Held on Wednesday

A telegram to the Observer from W. A. (Waldo) Geddes received this morning states that his father, A. S. Geddes, died at Preston, Idaho, Sunday night, following a serious illness of several weeks. Mr. Geddes had been taken from Worland, Wyoming, to Preston the latter part of May in the hope that a change in altitude would prove beneficial. The telegram stated that the funeral will be held at Preston on Wednesday.

Mr. Geddes was for a number of years one of the prominent business residents of La Grande. Later he was engaged in the insurance business and previous to his removal to Wyoming he was with the Grande Ronde Lumber company at Perry.

Mr. Geddes was widely known throughout this part of the state and was an active worker in the affairs of the L. D. S. church. The news of his death comes as a shock to a large circle of friends.

The family have continued their residence in La Grande the most of the time until the recent departure of Mrs. Geddes to join her husband. The deceased leaves to mourn his loss his wife and three sons and three daughters. The youngest son and youngest daughter are with their mother and the oldest son, Waldo, is a resident of Idaho.

One daughter, Mrs. Erma Theisen, will be joined here by her sister Miss Fern Geddes of Walla Walla, this evening and they will go to Idaho to be present at the funeral. The remaining son, Grant, has also been a resident of La Grande up within a short time past.

TUESDAY LUNCH OFF THIS WEEK

La Grande business men, members of the Union County Ad Club, will not have their regular weekly luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow noon. The day is election day and it is felt that many will wish to take advantage of the noon hour to make their visit to the polls. No definite program had been arranged for the luncheon, and therefore, instead of being held on another day it will be called off entirely for the week.

COMMITTEEMEN ON CELEBRATION MEET TONIGHT

A meeting of all the members of the newly formed general committee on the Fourth of July celebration will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the city hall. General plans will be made at this meeting to make all arrangements for a big celebration of the greatest national holiday, and every member of the various committees already appointed is urged to attend. There will be new committees appointed to handle the various details of the celebration.

"THE MINER GIRLS"

FLORENCE ROSS

One of the "Miner Girls"

Will Complete this Demonstration in La Grande
Tuesday, June 3, 4, 5, at the following Stores

Harris Grocery, C. L. Thorne, White's Grocery, Joel's Grocery

Those who have not had the opportunity to call on the "Miner Girls" the past week, will profit by doing so at the above dates.

The "Miner Girls" sincerely thank the many residents and merchants of La Grande for the courteous and loyal support given them in this, their first city in Eastern Oregon, proving beyond a doubt that the people here, as elsewhere recognize "Superiority" in the "Miner" Brands of Rolled Oats, Wheat Flakes, Flapjack Flour, Pearls of Wheat and others.

The fact that the 110 stockholders comprising the Albers Bros. Milling Co. have suffered indigestion, and have been unjustly condemned by some who do not know, that the individual responsible has been removed from the Farm and has entered partnership with others, makes the work of the "Miner Girls" worth while, and the satisfactory encouragement from the people who now lift forward in their entertainment, after so long years of the always fair to have been the Farm's good friend of supporters.

The other stockholders of Albers Bros. Milling Co. think of but one thing, good cereal, and to satisfy, and have been directly owner and partners and do all their work by the motions of ONE MAN, who has gone from and go to your help and assistance.
