To the motion picture fans thru-out the country, "Doug" Fairbanks typifies the real American type of character—that type which contributes to our national fame as "tender, respectful, obliging, considerate men who when need be, will make any sacrifice for principle and fight like Hell for right and justice". Never yet has a Fairbanks picture turned away an audience sad-eyed or sighing, and when "Doug's" admirers see him in "Arizona" they will witness one of his most reliable performances thus far given before the camera. It is a photoplay and characterization which will make screen history, first, because of their human interest, second, because of their artistry and captivating wholesomeness. Isis Sunday, June 15.

BOY SCOUT WEEK.

Churches, next Sunday (June 8), will fire the opening gun in the national Boy Scout week drive. Pastors have promised to outline the splendid war time work of the Boy Scouts, and to speak of the reasons why American youths should have a chance to share the benefits offered by the scouting organizations. The campaign for the week is to enlist, in Oregon, 5800 associate members, whose support and financial help will be to extend the size and usefulness of scouting. One million members are to be secured in America.

President Wilson designated next week as Boy Scouts week, and the boys themselves are arranging demonstrations to focus public attention on their work and usefulness, and the patriotic nature of their training and activities.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK

YOU'VE HEARD A LOT ABOUT "A FISHERMAN'S LUCK". ANY FISHERMAN WHO HAS ANY "LUCK" MUST BE WELL EQUIPPED WITH THE RIGHT KIND OF TACKLE. THAT'S WHY MANY GO FISHING AND COME HOME WITH NOTHING BUT A "STORY". WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF FISHING SUPPLIES—FROM THE HOOK TO THE OTHER END OF THE LINE. WE HAVE ALL THE "TRINKETS" THAT ENTICE THE FISH TO COME CLOSE ENOUGH TO THE HOOK TO BE CAUGHT. MOST ALL GOOD FISHERMEN BUY THEIR SUPPLIES AT OUR STORE—THAT'S WHY THEY'RE "GOOD". JUST THE OTHER DAY SAYS CRAVEN TO HUFF: "GUESS I'LL GO OUT AND CATCH A STRING OF TROUT". SAYS HUFF TO CRAVEN: "YOU CAN DO IT IF YOU'LL FIRST FISH AROUND IN THE SHO WCASE AND GET YOUR TACKLE". AND CRAVEN DID AND WENT FORTH PROPERLY EQUIPPED AND HE CAME BACK WITH THE BEST STRING OF FISH EVER SHOWN IN INDEPENDENCE. THIS HINT TO THE WISE SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT.
