UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 550; calves, 11; hogs, 3295; sheep, 4608.

Receipts have been so light this week that there has been no real test in prices. Most of the offerings are best characterized by the term "near beef," while there has not been any quality stuff offered no doubt well finished steers would bring 6 75 to 7.

Hog run has been about 50 per cent less than it should have been. Prices were well maintained during the week, bulk of offering going around 7c. The market is finishing strong at 7 10 to 7 15 for best quality porkers.

A light week in the sheep section, all lines maintaining good strong prices. Lambs of good quality are bringing 6 25; ewes are selling well at 4 50 for tops, wethers remaining at the 5 50 mark.

HONEST ADVERTISING

Bill Nye, the lamented provoker of smiles, once had a cow to sell, or professed to have, and he advertised the animal in this manner:

"Owing to my ill health, I will sell at my residence in township nineteen, range eighteen, according to government survey, one plush raspberry cow giving milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form, she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home with a stay chain, but she will be sold to any one who will treat her right. She is one-fourth Shorthorn and three-fourths hyena. I will also throw in a double-barreled shotgun which goes with her. In May she usually goes away for a week or two and returns with a tall red calf with wabbly legs. Her name is Rose. I would rather sell to a non-resident."—Ex.

Jacob Thoman and F. Walgrave, of Tualatin, on the Oregon Electric and P. E. & E., had a personal encounter October 19, 1914, and the sequel is a damage suit in circuit court. Thoman says he was fairly strong man at the time, and that Walgrave so badly beat him up that he sustained a hernia, and will have to undergo an operation. He already has spent $25 with a surgeon and will have to expend $150 more to get himself into shape, he avers, and he asks a total of $1175—$1000 personal damages and $175 for expenditures made and to be made under the care of a surgeon.
