HELP FOR HOUSEWIVES

IN these days when every penny should be accounted for in the buying of food, clothing and supplies, there's nothing like one of those Checking Accounts here at the Farmers State Bank to encourage SYSTEM.

Why not open such an account Mrs. Housewife and reduce the H. C. L. or a Savings Account at Good Interest?

C. W. IRVINE, President.
J. B. PARKER, Vice President.
C. G. IRVINE, Cashier.
Glen C. Smith, Asst. Cashier.

"Ever Occur to You?"

says the Good Judge

That it's foolish to put up with an ordinary chew, when it doesn't cost any more to get real tobacco satisfaction.

Every day more men discover that a little chew of real good tobacco lasts longer and gives them real contentment.

There's nothing like it.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Citizens of Independence will appropriately observe Armistice Day (Nov. 11.) and pay honor to the veterans of the World War. A complete program will be available within a few days.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

"THE KNICKERBOCKER BUCKAROO"

NAZIMOVA

"EYE FOR EYE"

WM. FARNUM

"RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE"

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2—DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo." The biggest and best Douglas Fairbanks picture ever produced. The longest, the most pretentious, the funniest, most exciting Fairbanks picture ever attempted. Every foot of film is packed with punch and laughter. It'll make you gasp and laugh and applaud and yell for more when the 6,700 feet is run. It took six months to make it and cost $250,000.

MONDAY, NOV. 3—The Eighth and Ninth Episodes of the serial, "The Lost Express." Also ANN MURDOCK in "My Wife." A picturization of the famous Charles Frohman stage play. A clever actress in a clever play full of complicated situations. A honeymoon spent in opposite ends of a hotel.

TUESDAY, NOV. 4—The great NAZIMOVA in "Eye For Eye." A story of intrigue, love and valor, a golden romance of Araby. A story more wonderful than any of the Arabian Nights, greater than Carmen, more glowing than Salome. As mysterious as the desert from which it came depicting the passions of the East and the chivalry of the West. The story of a girl who welcomes life with open arms—sparkling as the Mediterranean, colorful as the Orient. Like a draught of distilled poppies, it sets the imagination aflame. Daring in its intensity.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5—ENID BENNETT in "The Haunted Bedroom." Miss Bennett, as a young newspaper woman, trails a ghost, a thing of shadows and empty ether. A mystery that would make Sherlock Holmes quake. It makes your hair stand on end this shadowy, cold menacing ghost. Cock-eyed BEN TURPIN and crew in "No Mother To Guide Him." A gloom destroyer of the best class.

THURSDAY, NOV. 6—MONROE SALISBURY in "The Blinding Trail." A mighty drama of the frozen north—the story of a strong and trustful man who believed in woman until, sightless, he saw the truth at last. The greatest screen fight of them all—a terrific battle between a blind giant and his opponent while the woman watching decides to cast her lot with the victor.

FRIDAY, NOV. 7—WILLIAM FARNUM in a picturization of Zane Grey's famous novel, "Riders of the Purple Sage," the story of a man who was not afraid. They feared him because he rode hard and shot straight—because to him womanhood was sacred and he backed honor with two big black guns. "Soon his keen eye recognized the swing of the rider in the saddle. 'It's Lassiter, Jane,' he cried, 'and when he rides like that it means hell.'"

SATURDAY, NOV. 8—WILLIAM DESMOND in "Barefisted Gallagher." He fights his way thru. Ford Weekly and a comedy.

SUNDAY, NOV. 9—CECIL B. DE MILLE'S production "For Better, For Worse." Branded "yellow" and a "coward," he proved himself to be a big MAN.

ISIS THEATRE INDEPENDENCE

"WILLARD E. CRAVEN, HARDWARE."

The Craven & Huff Hardware Co. is no more for on Wednesday of this week, W. M. Huff, the junior member retired and the firm henceforth will be known as "Willard E. Craven, Hardware," with Willard E. Craven as principal stockholder, which of course gives it the necessary financial stability and insures to the public the same service and satisfaction.

Willard E. Craven, who will continue to do business at the old stand, is a live wire all the time, is very popular with every one and will continue to enjoy the confidence and esteem of the store's many patrons.

COMPANY K'S CARNIVAL NOW ON.

The carnival, given under the auspices of Company K., is now on in full blast and will end in a riot of frolic Saturday night at which time an immense crowd is expected to be present. As is the custom Young America is hanging to the merry-go-round and ferris wheel true to form.

SIGNS ARE INDICATING BETTER TIMES HERE

Independence has begun to get its share of prosperity, there being much evidence to bear out the statement that the slump of last year has reached its finale.

Practically every house in town is occupied, a number of real estate deals are being made and merchants are receiving an increase in business.

A feeling of optimism is becoming more apparent and there is a more ready willingness to co-operate for the public good.

Of course, this spirit of going forward has not struck our little band of knockers, who would knock in Heaven, but all others can see the signs, hear the advance, smell the aroma, taste the sweet and touch the reality.

FIRE PARTIALLY DESTROYS HEDGES HOME

The D. L. Hedges home on Monmouth street, jointly occupied by Mr. Hedges and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, was partially destroyed by fire Monday noon. Presumably starting from a defective flue, the flames soon developed the second story of the house and before the fire could be put out the upper portion was badly damaged. The large crowd which assembled rendered assistance in removing the furniture and the fire brigade did effective work. As the upper portion and roof of the house will have to be re-built, the total loss will amount to several hundred dollars.

WOMAN RUN OVER BY WOMAN AUTOIST

Mrs. Frank Bush was run over by an automobile driven by Miss Evans of Monmouth last night at the corner of Main and C streets and quite seriously injured. She was thrown to the pavement and two wheels of the heavy car passed over her head, lacerating one of her ears badly and cutting her face severely. Medical assistance was speedily obtained and the unfortunate woman removed to her home.

McLAUGHLIN HOPS TOP MARKET AT 86c.

Dewey Hill's top price of 85c. for hops only commanded a lead for a few hours for soon after C. A. McLaughlin sold his balance for 86c. A portion of his crop had already been contracted at 50c. Mr. McLaughlin feels so fortunate in disposing of his 1919 yield at a profitable price that he and Mrs. McLaughlin will spend a few weeks in California this winter.

The only other 1919 hops in this section yet unsold is forty bales belonging to Sloper & Patton.

INDEPENDENCE CHAUTAUQUA OFFICERS

Those guaranteeing the financial success of the winter chautauqua which takes place in Independence on Nov. 13-14-15-17-18, held a meeting Wednesday night and elected officers and committees. The officers chosen were J. H. Collins chairman, M. P. Baldwin secretary and F. E. Dickson treasurer. The committee on publicity has started its part of the work and a ticket selling campaign will be underway in a few days. The publicity committee is fortunate in having A. G. Williams as one of its members as he is up-and-coming all the time.
