EXPERIENCE

The matter of deciding on a remedy is important, but it should be a matter of equal importance to have that remedy prepared accurately from pure, active drugs.

This is where experience counts and when a remedy is prepared at our store it receives the attention of skilled, experienced pharmacists.

Always Be Sure of the Number

—When you trust to an old card or letter head you are apt to call a number that has been changed.

—And when you do call a "wrong number" you cause inconvenience and delay for yourself and for the party whom you call in error.

—Make it a practice to consult the Telephone Directory first.

BIRTHDAYS ARE IN VOGUE

GRANGE HALL, Jan. 24 (Special)—Last Saturday evening about forty neighbors and friends met at the Grange Hall to help celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. C. E. Golden and Mrs. Wm. Taylor and the third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anson. The evening was spent in playing games and having a jolly time in general. The merry-making was brought to a close by asking each guest of honor to make a speech, and the ones they made caused a great deal of merriment.

A birthday party was given at the Will Sherwood home Tuesday evening, in honor of Cecil's 15th birthday. The evening was spent in playing the usual party games. At a late hour refreshments were served and the thirty-four guests left with the impression that Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood are the best of entertainers.

Another birthday was remembered Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Smutz asked a number of little folks over to help Master George light the seven candles that were placed on the cake of cakes.

Early Thursday morning E. Reynolds got up, donned his overalls, took his wife and made to the scene where the butchering of seven big hogs was going to take place on the Lee Reynolds ranch. Now the Reynolds are enjoying delicious pork sausage, spare ribs, etc.

Mrs. C. E. Golden and daughter Faye, spent Sunday in La Grande, at the home of Mrs. Golden's daughter, Mrs. Arch Conley.

Mrs. Mary Taylor has moved from the Lee Snider place to her new home north of Island City.

Deputy State Master of Grange, Roy Gekeler, County Agricultural Paul Spillman and Fred Huffman made a trip to Telocaset Saturday to help the Grange meeting and to put on display the corn exhibit that was shown at the Blue Mountain Grange January 15. Mr. Spillman gave a talk on the corn show and distributed some fine seeds among the farmers, many of whom are looking for cheaper feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hughes were guests at the Ernest DeLong home Sunday.

Mrs. H. M. Boswell is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Grout.

Mrs. George Geaver says that each member of her family is glad to be out again, after having to stay in so long on account of the smallpox.

Henry Bock is on the sick list.

D. P. Ramsdell, State Sunday School Missionary, was a visitor at Liberty Sunday School Sunday. He is working for the standardization of the rural Sunday Schools. The members voted in favor of trying to get their school on a standard basis.

A. T. Hill has appointed Ernest DeLong to take charge of the donations for the European Relief Fund by the Grange Hall District.

Mrs. Ed Stringhom and Mrs. Josephine Spencer visited the school Wednesday.

The Observer will pay a good price for clean rags.

Why you should place that monument order with this establishment—

1st.—The marble or granite will be of FIRST QUALITY.

2nd.—The design will be an excellent example of this art.

3rd.—The lettering, etc., will be DEEPLY cut in order to offset the actions of the elements.

The monument is erected for all the time—that's why it should be made and erected by US.
