Father says—

"No slippers tonight!"

"I've worn these Wurkshus since morning, and I have had a hard day, too. But my feet are as comfortable as I'd want them to be. Even if the Smiths dropped in I wouldn't change. I got the Wurkshu habit from son, and he got it at that camp he liked so well last summer."

The Wurkshu habit is also a saving habit. More people find it so every year. Hood Wurkshus are famous for their durability and comfort. Heavy mail-bag duckuppers, grey tire-tread soles. Hood patented pneumatic heels—you walk on air

Charming in its simplicity was the wedding last evening of Miss Mildred Bush and Mr. Stanley F. Mills, which was consummated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bush, 1108 First street, at 8 o'clock.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Ira Aldrich, presiding elder of the Methodist church, in the presence of only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the bridal couple.

The bride wore a smart navy blue tailleur of tricotine, with hat to match, and carried a beautiful bouquet of Ophelia roses. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Nell Gillette of Echo, also wore a navy blue suit and hat. The bridegroom was unattended.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Lester Stoddard sang in a beautiful manner, "Today," after which the bridal party and their guests were served a six-course wedding dinner.

The rooms of the Bush home were attractively decorated with pink carnations and roses.

Mrs. Mills is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bush of this city and has many friends here, having lived in La Grande most of her life. Following her graduation from the local high school, she has been connected with the O.-W. R. & N.

Mr. Mills is also well known here, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, former residents of this city, but now living in Canada. Mr. Mills is an employee of the O.-W. R. & N. of this city, where the young couple will make their home after a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C., for which place they left last evening.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Nell Gillette of Echo, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Halsey of Union, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stoddard of Perry.

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Edith Elizabeth Tilton became the bride of Henry E. Counsell, Rev. Jas. A. Smith of the Presbyterian church officiating. The bride was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Belle Counsell, while George H. Tucker attended the bridegroom.

The bride wore a beautiful dress of georgette and satin and carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair ferns. Present at the ceremony were the relatives and a few friends of the happy couple. At the conclusion of the ceremony a two-course luncheon was served by the bride's sister, Mrs. J. W. Spencer, assisted by Miss Eleanor Williamson and Miss Ina Hughes.

The bridegroom and the bride and bridegroom left for Portland on No. 23, to spend their honeymoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Tilton, living three miles south of town.
