CITY AND COUNTRY

Co. K's first smoker of the season, Friday night, Sept. 17. A big event. All going.

"The River's End" which comes to the Isis on Sunday afternoon and evening, Sept. 19, is a stupendous picture and because of the high rental charges an extra ten cents in admission price is necessary.

Mrs. Emma Shelley and mother-in-law, Mrs. Hattie Shelley, of Coquille are visiting on the Setak farm, south of Independence. The first named is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Setak. This is Mrs. Shelley Sr.'s first visit to the valley and she likes it fine.

"Fritz" Torgeson will hold a farm sale Saturday, Sept. 17, and dispose of his stock and machinery, preparatory to moving to Albany. Everybody will be sorry to see the Torgeson family leave as they were good neighbors and made many friends here.

Albert Quartier was here for a few days last week and some how it was learned that he has rented a large furnished residence in Portland. As he can't give a satisfactory explanation of what he is going to do with it, everybody has begun to listen for the wedding bells.

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. Sarah Collins, who has been visiting relatives here, returned to her home in Dallas Saturday.

Sheriff Orr made an official call to our city last Wednesday.

Clarence Reynolds and family of Corvallis spent last week with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Reynolds. Mr. Reynolds, Jr., is pastor of the Christian church at that place.

Mrs. Sam Wilson and grand daughter of Astoria are visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lester Murphy, and other relatives this week.

Cleve Prather finished threshing Sunday and Wells and Moore finished Tuesday.

Don McCann of Westfall is visiting his father-in-law, Mr. V. Prather this week.

Clifford Wells was a Salem caller Sunday.

Hugh Baldwin and daughters, Dorothy and Ruth, and son, Dick, of Winlock, Wash., visited Mr. Baldwin's aunt, Mrs. A. J. Hall, last week.

G. G. Hewett and wife of Elkins visited her mother, Mrs. Louise Harman, Sunday.

N. C. Anderson, wife and mother, and Ted Steele spent Sunday evening with E. B. Gobat and wife at Suver.

Mildred Hall, after spending a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hall, returned to her home in Portland Saturday.

Howard Murphy, who has been taking medical treatment in Portland, is much better.

Bob Emmons and Bill Bates of Albany were callers here Sunday.

J. K. Neal and wife visited friends in Silverton Sunday.

J. A. Reynolds and family have moved from Independence to their farm.

Nicholls Bros. rented their place to Mr. Wattenberger and moved to Wren.

There was quite a number from here attended the Thurston sale at Suver. G. A. Wells, Perry Wells, J. A. Reynolds, R. Peterson and N. C. Anderson bought a number of Shorthorn cattle. Ed Lichty bought a horse.

GET THE BOY READY FOR SCHOOL

Winter is coming and the public schools will soon open. Every boy, regardless of whether he is five or eighteen years old, must be "outfitted" and it is to the interest of parents, as well as the boy, to bring him to Kreamer's and get him what needs. You owe it to the boy to clothe him warmly and neatly and put him on an equal-footing with his companions. Hats, caps, overcoats, suits, shirts, sweaters, mittens, gloves, socks and shoes, and a guarantee of value with every purchase. Any or all at prices just as cheap, if not cheaper, than elsewhere, catalog houses included. Let Kreamer dress the boy from top to toes, spick and span, all-ready for the cold, sleet and snow.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Shaver and Mrs. R. Ludvickson and daughter, Lucile, of Wichita, Kan., motored to Independence Wednesday, the latter to see the big hop fields. It was the first they ever saw and the sight was greatly enjoyed.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

—is maintained by the state in order that the young people of Oregon may receive, without cost, the benefits of a liberal education.

The University includes the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the Graduate School, the School of Physical Education, and the professional Schools of Law, Medicine (at Portland), Architecture, Commerce, Journalism, Education and Music.

High standards of scholarship are made possible by an able faculty, well equipped laboratories and a library of nearly 100,000 volumes.

Supervised athletics are encouraged and every attention given the health and welfare of the students.

With a heightened confidence gained by the recent expression of public support, the University is now entering upon an era of large development and extended usefulness.

"There's More Real Satisfaction" says the Good Judge

In a little of the Real Tobacco Chew, than you ever got out of the ordinary kind.

The good rich taste lasts so long you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—that's why it costs you less to chew this class of tobacco.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
