Time to put them up. Too chilly right now in the morning and at night. As in years past we are official headquarters for heating stoves. We have established a good stove business because we handled A No. 1 Stoves at very reasonable prices. Nobody ever makes a mistake by purchasing stoves at our store—in fact we sell so many we have difficulty in keeping them in stock. If you have never bought a stove of us it is to your interest to do so. If you have bought a stove of us, we know you'll buy the next one here, too.
