SHERRY'S LAST DAY.

William S. Hart in a new thrilling western photoplay!

This announcement was sufficient to pack the Sherry Theatre last night when "White Oak," a story by Mr. Hart himself, was presented. Did it score? Well, rather.

In this Paramount photoplay, Mr. Hart is seen as a breezy, gritty gamblin' man in the west of the early fifties. His sister dies as a result of exposure to cold following her dive into the river from a steamer to escape a scoundrel and he plans vengeance. The girl he loves joins a wagon train which is ambushed by Indians, and Oak Miller, with [illegible] a dog, manages to drive the Indians away. How the villain is punished and Oak and Barbara, his fiancee, find happiness, make one of the best pictures turned out by Mr. Hart in many a day.

The picture has all the elements that please the average screen fans, and Mr. Hart's portrayal of the brave gamblin' man is, as usual, effective and thoroughly artistic. Vola Vale proves herself an adorable leading woman, while the supporting player, notably Alexander Gaden, Robert Walker, Bert Sprotte, Helen Holley and Chief Standing Bear, are excellent. The photography is superb.

Also showing a two-reel comedy.

NOVELTY, COMEDY, BURLESQUE AT ARCADE TONIGHT

The La Vines are the headline attraction in the act of different appearing as comedy acrobats, contortists of hand and head balancing feats showing marvelous strength and ability, the female being the understanding catcher the male member through the air by hand.

Lewis, La Verre and Davis will furnish their share of laughter with their nonsensical offering, "A Hokum Review," replete with songs and comedy patter that will keep you in good humor.

Dancing Hagens, a terpsichorian novelty offering called "Dashes and Whirls" doing everything that is known in the dancing line with no equals.

Ray Decota is a high-class character singer in character and descriptive songs. An elaborate feature picture is added to the star bill.

BEBE DANIELS' CURLS ARE HER VERY OWN

Picture patrons have sometimes asked if Bebe Daniels' heavy thatch of black curls is natural and her own and whether she grew rather than purchased it.

Any doubts as to this important point will be set at rest when the star's latest photoplay, "Nancy from Nowhere," is shown Tuesday and Wednesday at the Arcade Theatre. For in this picture Miss Daniel plays the role of a badly abused little orphan whose guardian, at the slightest provocation, heats her a-hauls her around by her hair.

And no wig would have "stayed on" through some of these hectic scenes, so Miss Daniels now proves that her luxuriant curls grow from her own scalp.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., started what he called his Favorite Prescription, and placed it with druggists in every state.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womankind. After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and discouraged—down by weakness of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.

More recently this wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called Anuric (for kidneys or backache), has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—think their backaches, rheumatism, and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joints or muscles are completely conquered by its use.

Send 10c to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of any of the remedies, or write for free medical advice.
