Portland's Famous Houses.

In Portland, Me., near the waterfront, there stands, side by side, two weather-beaten, neglected houses. One of them is the house in which Longfellow was born; in the other, Thomas B. Reed, "the czar of the house," first saw the light. But as far as Portland is concerned they are just plain houses.

Riding the Goat

Maybe you'd better chart the first time Marvin Johnson rode and thought it all a joke but here's Furnomd Mechum riding one on Fifth Ave., New York, to aid the drive for funds for the Masonic Home at Utica.

To Our Customers:

After June 1st, we request that all our customers please save their sales slips, as we do not again itemize. We have been for the past three years using a Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine on our Wholesale and General Ledger accounts and have decided to handle all our retail accounts in the same manner. This machine is similar to that used in the banks. We believe this machine will expedite our accounting and make it possible for us to give you the best service in your accounts with absolute accuracy.

However, should you have any missing slips we will gladly furnish you duplicates, as we retain all original sales slips in our files.

Very truly yours,
