LOSTINE PEOPLE ENJOY A PARTY

(Special to The Observer)

LOSTINE, July 22.—Miss Rose Allen gave a "knocking party" at her home last Wednesday evening and invited her girl friends and the girl friends of her sister Blanche. The parlors were furnished with comfortable deck chairs and stacks of hats and dolled up for the occasion were and all report a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson entertained a large group of their friends to a dinner on their lawn under the maple trees a week ago Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson and two daughters of Wallowa with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taylor of Aberdeen, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanson and daughter of Minn., visiting in the country, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burnside of Enterprise, Mr. Pittman of Joseph, Rachel Fleshman of La Grande, John Thompson of Wallowa and Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dodson and daughter of Lostine. All had a very happy time and Mrs. Joe Thompson went to Enterprise Tuesday to help Mrs. Burnside in canning strawberries.

Miss Louise Wenaty, formerly a nurse at Wallowa, but who has been spending her winters in Arizona for her health, is here visiting her friend, Mrs. Ella A. McKenzie. She traveled through Yellowstone park on her way here from the south and she about decided to remain here for the future, finding the heat in Arizona quite oppressive.

Mrs. Alma Nolan and daughter, Clara, and Miss Violet Glenn left Monday for Long Beach, Wash., and other coast resorts for a vacation trip of a few weeks.

Oscar Olson and Harley Candle returned home from La Grande recently where they had been at work and have decided to remain here and work in the harvest field the rest of the summer.

Mrs. M. B. Goodman, who makes her home at La Grande with her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Allsworth, is here visiting her sons, Clayton and Ralph Goodman. Clayton has just recovered from a severe attack of mountain fever, due to a tick bite. He is able to go back tending sheep camp again this week.

Mrs. Alvin Parsons came in from La Grande last Tuesday to preside as district deputy of the Rebekah lodge at the initiation that evening.

The Rebekahs of Wallowa county held an annual convention here on Tuesday afternoon and evening and the state president was here in person. It proved a very instructive and helpful gathering, with some delegations here from Enterprise, Joseph and Wallowa.

The Pittsburg of Wallowa county and their families held a delightful picnic up the south fork of Lostine canyon last Sunday. There were several hundred in attendance and some were came in from La Grande.

The Union Missionary Society met with Mrs. Roy Casey of Evans on Thursday, July 6th and after a profitable and enjoyable devotional and business meeting the hostess, our president, served ice cream and waters which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Elmer Briggs was a visitor that day, and now is a prospective member.

Dr. Hugh S. Magill of Washington, D. C., came in last Sunday for a few weeks visit with his brothers, S. L. Magill and D. H. Magill of this place and his brother George of Auburn, Ill., who is visiting here for the benefit of his health. Mrs. Hugh S. Magill who has also been here visiting for nearly two months, went to La Grande Saturday to meet her husband and is stopping off the train her husband turned in such a way as to cause her to fall to the platform. It was thought for several days that her one was broken, but was found by X-ray examination not to be, but ligaments badly sprained. Mr. Magill came in from attending the National Sunday School association convention at Kansas City, where he was elected as general secretary of the Sunday School association, taking the place of Marion Lawrence, who has been at the head of Sunday school work in this country for 22 years, and has been appointed consulting general secretary for the association. Mr. Magill has been travelling secretary for the national educational association for several years, attending the meeting of the educational association at Boston, Mass., before the Sunday School convention at Kansas City. Mr. Magill has many friends in this county, where he has visited many times for his summer vacation, who are glad to know of the high honor which has come to him, and tell you he will make good, wherever his work lies.

Dr. Olmsted and family, Nurse Miss Mayme Coleman and Mrs. Blackburn, one of the other health nurses from Portland, conducted a baby clinic in the church office Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5, and there were 43 babies weighed, given a share of the good milk, given instruction and treating most of them received a very good morning. Members of the local committee assisting with the work and in attendance at it, and took care of the mothers, who were interested enough to bring their babies, showed very intelligent work. One mother came in a hack from the country and had her baby weighed, treated and given instruction. Dr. Olmsted was very much interested in the baby clinic as it is in the beginning of the work.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schaefer, near the Lostine bridge, last Sunday morning, when their daughter, Miss Ethel, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Wilson, of Enterprise. The bride is a very popular young lady and her many friends have blessed and favored it until she has swung into the full tide of married life. The groom is a young man of high character and is employed in the mercantile business here and in Enterprise. It has spread now and it is said that the north of Enterprise, it charges in the Williams and Reed lumber studies head and they had to go to Sunday morning and cut the wires to let the stock out. They

ASSETS OF DRY LAW POINTED OUT

(By Associated Press)

ELKANSTON, Ill., July 22.—Prohibition was declared to be a circle worker by officials of Chambers of Commerce in some of the leading cities of the country in statements sent to The Union Signal, the official publication of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union and made public by that organization today.

The Union Signal quoted the following officials:

James S. Cady, secretary of the Minneapolis Association: "Prohibition has proved an economic asset to our community. It has promoted thrift among our people and the savings bank deposits are constantly increasing.

"Fewer people are borrowing and from charity organizations and there are fewer dependents and dependents in our institutions.

"Buildings formerly occupied by liquor traffickers are all used for other lines of business.

"It is my judgment that prohibition has been of material benefit generally to the interests of our city."
