COLUMBUS DAY IS CELEBRATED

Baker Is Site for Celebration in Eastern Oregon; Many Local People to Attend.

Four hundred and thirty years ago today the first white man, according to the majority of historians, set foot on islands adjacent to the western continents, North and South America. On October 11, late in the afternoon, Christopher Columbus first sighted land and made a landing on one of the Bahamas, naming it San Salvador, the following day.

Columbus left Spain August 2, 1492 and carried about 150 men on three sailing vessels, the Nina, the Pinto and the Santa Maria. Two other trips, within the next six years resulted in his exploring several other islands and eventually making a landing on the mainland of South America near the mouth of the Orinoco river.

Baker Celebrates.

The national government and the state of Oregon have both declared today a legal holiday and many cities in the state are celebrating the anniversary of the "birth of our country."

Baker is the site for the larger part of the memorial exercises in Eastern Oregon and a goodly number of local people will leave La Grande this afternoon and will drive to Baker where they will spend the evening.

K. C. to Install

One of the features of the evening will be the installation of officers in the Baker lodge of the Knights of Columbus with Francis P. Ryan, deputy of Eastern Oregon, with headquarters at Ontario. Ryan spent last evening in La Grande, leaving this morning for Baker.

The evening program consists mainly of speeches by local speakers from various parts of Eastern Oregon and musical numbers will also find an important place on the program.

PENDLETON IS AFTER ROADS

Warner, Pilot Rock; Albert Peterson, Ukiah; A. F. Schlarbaum, Albee; A. S. Arbogast, Ritter; E. O. Woodall, Long Creek; C. P. Haight, Canyon City; Sidney Green, Mt. Vernon; Frank McGirr, Fox; Burns, to be supplied; Lakeview, to be supplied; John Day, to be supplied.

The matter of selecting an official name for the association was left to the executive committee. One suggestion, made by Senator Roy W. Ritner, is that the highway from Pendleton to Lakeview be called the Joaquin Miller highway in honor of the noted poet who was the first county judge of Grant county. This suggestion met with favorable response but action was left with the directors and officers.

Series of Meetings.

At the close of the formal session at Pilot Rock yesterday the executive committee met and arranged for a trip south next week.
