The honeymoon, I'll bet is fun,
When the bride does all she wishes;
But married life has not begun
'Till the bride does all the dishes.

You never can tell. The more henpecked a man is the more he crows when he is away from home.

One reason why it is hard to pay doctors' bills is because the tank needs filling once in a while.

NO, GLADYS, FOOD FOR THOUGHT IS NOT CHEWED WITH FISHOO TEETH.

Correct this sentence: "Don't worry about me," said Dad. "This overcoat is good enough for anybody."

Nothing takes the wind out of a bank account like trying to keep up with the neighbors.

Advice in a Code Book: "If one doesn't care to strike one's finger, one should hold the hammer in both of one's hands."

Sanatorium: A place where men are confined as punishment for success.

Some people have such weak optics they can't tell the truth when they see it.

The way to succeed is to find your right calling, find the right location, and find the right wife.

Indians used to refer to us as "pale faces." That was in the days before the women started using rouge.

You need never worry about the pay envelope of the wages of sin. You'll get it, and it won't be "docked" either.

Guide to the Movies

How to understand a Movie that you have never seen:

When you see a woman knitting you know that a child is about to be born.

When a woman's dress falls below her knees you know that she is a vamp.

When you see a man with his back toward a door you know that he is extracting a key and that no good is coming to the sister of the hero who is in the room.

When you see a man wearing a hat in the house you know that he is a detective.

When a man carries a book under his arm and lives in a garret you know he is an author.

When a wife whispers in her husband's ear and he kisses her fervently, you know that a child is about to come into their midst. The husband never seems to know anything about this.

MONEY TALKS BUT THE MEN WHO MAKE IT ARE GENERALLY SILENT.

Experts say Americans waste four million seconds a day saying hello on the telephone. But they waste no time saying good-by when creditors call up.

Hey! Vat can I sell you today?

Customer: How much are those cantaloupes?

Hey: One for 10 cents, two for twenty.

Bucks Snow Union Under 69-7 Score

PENDLETON, Or. (Special)—After having lost three straight games, the Pendleton Buckaroos came back with a victory today by crushing Union high under a score of 69 to 7 in a game played here. The Buckaroos started their scoring on the kickoff, when McCulley fell on the ball which Sexton had booted over the Union goal line.

The visitors scored their lone touchdown on a long forward pass in the final period of play. Pendleton's second team defeated the Umatilla high school team, DeSpain's drop-kick in the last few minutes of play breaking the 6-to-6 tie. Pendleton will close the season with a game against Baker high here Thanksgiving day.

WEEK IS BUSY ONE AT KAMELA

KAMELA, (Special) — Mrs. Frank Sanford and son, Gerald, returned from Rathdrum, Idaho, bringing with them the ten months old baby of Mrs. Sanford's brother. The little one's mother died some months ago and Mrs. Sanford will now care for it.

Mrs. G. E. Prowler and her two sons spent Saturday in La Grande.

R. A. Hendrick has moved his family back to La Grande after a short stay in Kamela.

Fireman L. C. Henderson is carrying a smile that won't come off, as the result of the arrival of twin boys at his home in La Grande last Saturday. Mrs. Henderson and the babies are reported to be doing fine.

Mrs. W. E. Evans was a La Grande visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward are once more residents of Kamela, having recently moved back into their home after several months' residence in La Grande.

Mrs. John Folgarro left Tuesday for Portland, where she will visit her parents.

Mrs. Frank Sanford's father and brother, Joseph and Homer Dawson, arrived Tuesday from their homes at Rathdrum, Idaho. They expect to remain at Kamela for some time.

Mrs. C. E. Thornburg is visiting her father down on the Snake river.

Mrs. H. Maxfield went to Union Wednesday.

Mrs. George Crook has been on the sick list for the past few days.

50 SEEK TAX POSITIONS

SALEM, Or.—More than 50 applications for positions in the state income tax department have been received by Earl Fisher, state tax commissioner, while other have informed the commissioner that they will request recognition later.

In most instances the people who have informed the state tax commissioner that they were supporters of the income tax law and as a result should have preference.

One of the applicants today said he had been employed in a prune dryer for several months, a position which, he declared, qualified him for a state berth.
