DAGUERREOTYPES.

MR. HENDER,

DAGUERREAN ARTIST,

WILL visit Oregon City on the 10th of October, when an opportunity will be had for all persons in that vicinity to get a likeness taken by an experienced operator—one who has been in the business eight years. He has been all through California, and has been in Oregon since June last. He has a large assortment of splendid frames and cases, large and small, varying in price from $5 to $25.

He will visit Champoeg on the 20th of November, and Salem, on the 1st of December.

All pictures taken, warranted to give general satisfaction.

RIGHTSIDE UP WITH CARE

CIRCULATE the news! Proclaim it from the hilltops, that Cris Taylor, a living biped, is on hand, if not with a pocket full of rocks, he has a few CLOCKS, and many other ictes. He can beat the Jews for bargains, and the Gentiles can't hold a candle to him. Just think of it, ex-twelfth clocks by one shipment! Old Gray be off entirely! Time is to be no more grumbling for the want of time—tempus fugit! Hot quick! Just agoing! Going—gone, off to Boston, where his old friends and customers can see the Elephant himself.

Peoria and Galesburg Plows.

THE undersigned has on hand, and is now making daily, every description of the above well-known Plows, which for material and workmanship are vastly superior to any in the Territory. As warranted to scour and do good work, and which he will sell at moderate prices, for Cash or Grain. Those in want of a good plow would do well to come and examine mine before purchasing elsewhere.

They can be had at all the principal towns on the river. Also at Forest Grove, Dayton and Lafayette, where I have appointed agents, who will sell as low as at the Factory, with the addition of the freight. EZRA J. POST.

TUALATIN ACADEMY,

J. M. KELLER, PRINCIPAL. MRS S. M. KELLER, PRECEPTRESS.

THIS institution is located in the town of Forest Grove, Tualatin Plains. It is now in its infancy, yet parents and guardians desiring to send to the school may be assured not only of the healthfulness and beauty of the location—the intelligence and morality of the inhabitants, but especially that such teachers will be employed as will make the highest mental and moral improvement of the scholars their chief object.

A spacious and noble Academy building has been erected on the site commanding a view of two extensive Prairies, with their intervening and encircling forests, and when completed will furnish ample accommodations for both departments of the school.

Forest Grove is about equi-distant from the towns of St. Helens, Milton, Portland, Milwaukie, Oregon City and Lafayette. The terms of the institution will commence as follows:

Spring term, the 2d Wednesday in March;
Summer term, the 2d Wednesday in June;
Fall term, 2d Wednesday in September;
Winter term, 1st Wednesday in December.

The terms will be eleven weeks each. Tuition—primary studies, $6. Higher do. $8 per term.

☞ Board may be obtained in private families.
