The Noon Hour.

Many a hard working young woman spends her noon hour in an endeavor to get a little rest to carry her through the remaining hours of the day. She is weak and weary, but she cannot give up the occupation which supports her. She must go back to the office and the typewriter, to the store and its duties, with tiresome customers to wait on and exacting employers to please.

For people who are weak and run down there is no medicine so valuable as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Many diseases in organs remote from the stomach have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and its allied organs. When the stomach is "weak," there is a failure to properly digest and assimilate the food which is eaten. Hence the whole body, and each organ of it, suffers from lack of nutrition, so that as a consequence of "weak" stomach, there may be "weak" lungs, "weak" heart, "weak" or torpid liver, "weak" nerves, etc. By curing diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, "Golden Medical Discovery" enables the assimilation of the nutriment necessary for the requirements of a healthy body. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and so increases the supply of blood which is the vital fluid of the body.

There is no alcohol in the "Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

Sick and ailing people especially those suffering from disease in its chronic form are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no similar offer of free medical advice which has behind it an institute of national note such as the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., presided over by Dr. Pierce, its chief consulting physician, with the assistance of nearly a score of skilled specialists.

"The Wonderful Medicine."

"I must again send a few lines to you to let you know how I am getting along since taking the wonderful medicine which cured me two years ago," writes Miss Bertha Ebeler, of 1416 Benton Street, St. Louis, Mo. "I still continue in very good health and think there is not a better medicine on earth than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. We would not be without it in the house, and also the little 'Pellets.'

"I have recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to many friends, and they all think it will do just what is claimed for it. It is the best thing for nervousness and for a weak, run down condition that any body could want. I was very nervous and weak last summer. I took five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it just made me feel like a new person. It gives a person new life and new blood. I can now work all day long without feeling the least bit tired. In fact I feel like a new person.

"My mother was also cured by it of a very bad state of stomach trouble about three years ago. I thank you a thousand times for what you have done for me and for your kind advice."

Wasted to a Skeleton.

"About six years ago my health failed," writes Miss Alethea R. Green, of Cooptown, Harford Co., Maryland. "I kept getting down lower and lower, until I could scarcely walk across the floor without struggling and gasping for breath. My home physician pronounced it general debility and catarrh of the throat, but although he did all he could, he failed to even relieve me. I tried various remedies, but all of no avail. I soon wasted away to a mere skeleton. Finally I was persuaded to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., which I did immediately. And on receiving his very kind advice I commenced the use of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription.' I took fourteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and nine of the 'Favorite Prescription' and to-day I am a well woman. I do heartily thank God and Dr. Pierce for my good health."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in cloth binding, or 21 stamps for the paper covered volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HERE'S WHAT'S WANTED.

A Citizen of Pendleton Supplies the Information.

Over half the complaints of mankind originate with the kidneys.

A slight touch of backache at first. Twinges and shooting pains in the loins follow. They must be checked, they lead to graver complications.

Plasters are tried, and liniments for the back.

So-called kidney cures which do not cure.

The long looked for result seems unattainable.

If you suffer, do you what relief?

Follow the plan adopted by this Pendleton citizen:

Mrs. L. Hodson, of 717 Aura street, says: "While my kidneys have never caused me any trouble which made itself apparent in the kidneys themselves, nor in the secretions, I have been bothered more or less by an aching across the small of my back, then down and through my kidneys. When I caught cold it hurt me across my loins and made me feel lame and sore. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Brock & McComas Co. drug store and used them. While I did not take them according to directions, being a poor hand to dose myself with medicines at all, they benefited me in every way, making my back stronger and toning up my whole system."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

In the county court of the state of Oregon, for Umatilla county.

In the matter of the estate of Jonathan J. Lee, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been by the above entitled court appointed administrator with will annexed of the above entitled estate, and that he has duly qualified as the law directs; all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same with proper vouchers to me at the store of Oliver & Co., Main street, Pendleton, Oregon, within six months of the date hereof.

Dated this 19th day of May, 1904.

WANTED—YOUR ORDERS FOR ENgraved cards, wedding invitations, etc.; 100 engraved visiting cards with plate, $1.50; additional cards in future, $1 per hundred. The East Oregonian.

IN PIONEER DAYS

I. H. STONEBRAKER SETTLED IN PENDLETON 44 YEARS AGO.

Plowed Up the Field Now Known as the Rugg Place and Raised Frist Crop in the Town—Jerome Stonebraker Born April 26, 1861, First White Child Born in Pendleton—Raised 90 Bushels of Oats Per Acre in Streets of Weston.

I. H. Stonebraker of McKay creek, who has resided in Umatilla county for the past 44 years, was in the city yesterday evening, and in conversation with the East Oregonian, recounted some interesting history of this city and county.

Mr. Stonebraker arrived on the present site of the city of Pendleton on August 2, 1860, and lived in a log hut on the north bank of the Umatilla river, just below the Main street bridge, that winter. His son, Jerome Stonebraker, was born on April 26, 1861, and was the first white child born in the city limits of the present city of Pendleton.

When Mr. Stonebraker arrived here the Cayuses and Umatilla Indians were using the present site of the city as a lot in which to break their ponies to ride.

The ground at that time was covered with smooth stones from the river bed. The Indians would round up the ponies on the present site of Main street and catch the wildest ones, and ride them on the rock piles in the old river bed, as the smooth stones soon tired the horses and they would make but a few jumps before giving up and becoming docile.

In the spring of 1861 Mr. Stonebraker plowed up the flat now occupied by the Rugg place above the railroad bridges and planted the first crop ever sown in Pendleton. He removed to a place now occupied by the town of Weston, and raised a crop of oats in 1861, on the present site of Weston, which yielded 90 bushels per acre.

He has resided in Umatilla county all these years, except a few months in California, and would live nowhere else. He is over 70 years of age, and is hale and hearty yet. He came from Page county, Iowa, to Umatilla county with ox teams, and his first money earned in this city was by making ox yokes from balm trees, for the freighters.

At that time the price of a rough yoke in The Dalles was $8, and as Mr. Stonebraker could make fair wages at the business he charged but $2 per yoke, and made three a day, besides helping clear off a garden spot and do other work. He made 80 yokes at that price, before supplying his trade. He also kept the stage station here in a building on the present site of the Hotel Pendleton.

FINNS IN UMATILLA.

Settlement of Thrifty People—Hard Luck Story of Their European Home.

The following brief interview with a prominent Finn residing near the city, was written for the Pacific Homestead, by Fred Lockley of this city:

Not more than a score of miles from Pendleton, Umatilla county, Or., is a colony of prosperous Finns. One of them, in speaking of his home in Finland, said: "There we raise a little grain when we can, but it is too dear to eat so we sell it to pay our taxes and buy a few coarse clothes.

"Many of the people there cut up the straw and scrape the inner bark of the spruce. They mix these two and soak them. The spruce bark forms a sort of mucilaginous substance and holds the straw together.

"We bake this into cakes and this is often all we have for months at a time in winter. Sometimes we can catch some fish and that helps us out.

"I am sending all the money I can spare back to Finland to bring my relatives out here. The people here do not know how fortunate they are. But we know; we who had to scatter charcoal on the snow so the snow would melt earlier and give us a longer season.

"We know who have seen our wives and children eat chopped straw because we could not buy bread."

RIDGE AND VICINITY.

Blood Poisoning From Noxious Weeds—Stock in John Day Country—Twelve Bands of Sheep to Mountain Ranges—Called to Washington by Illness of a Sister.

Ridge, June 4.—K. F. Fahrenwald sold and delivered his band of yearling steers to Pendleton parties for shipment the first of the week. We could not learn the price received.

G. L. Horseman poisoned himself while cleaning weeds out of his garden last week.

G. W. Linsner was out from John Day the first of the week. He reports stock as doing finely.

Little Barney Dougherty, Antone Vey and Joe Vey passed through with their flocks, consisting of 12 bands in all, to the mountains a few days ago.

Charles Rieman is holding down his homestead at present.

Mrs. James Davis started for South Bend, Wash., to attend the bedside of a dying sister. A letter came the day she left stating the sister was dead.

NEWS OF MILTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEwen Return From an Extended Visit to Bonnie Scotland—Social Movement in the Neighborhood of Milton for the Past Few Days.

Milton, June 7.—Messrs. S. A. and G. W. Miller have returned from Hood River, where they had been attending the nurserymen's convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEwen arrived here Saturday from a five months' visit with relatives in Scotland.

Rev. R. M. Messick and wife took their departure Saturday for their home at Cheney, Wash., after a week's visit here with friends.

Mrs. Mary Lucinger and daughter, Miss Rose, returned to their home at Walla Walla, after a few days' visit with Mrs. John Miller.

Rev. A. J. Adams took his departure Friday for Moro, Ore., where he will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Adams will leave Thursday for Moro to join her husband.

Mrs. R. E. Frazier has gone to Portland for a visit with her mother, Mrs. N. Bradley.

Mrs. O. M. Castleman arrived here yesterday from her home at Pendleton and is a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. J. Kershaw.

Mrs. T. C. Frazier returned this morning from Gearhart, where she had been attending the Y. M. C. A. meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Gibson came home Sunday from Palouse, Wash., where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. I. Hughes.

IN EVERY HOME

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

ALBA NEWS.

Cattlemen's Association Will Hold for Better Prices.

Alba, June 5.—Seeding is just through here, and planting gardens is the order of the day. Gardens planted earlier than the first of June are in more or less danger from frost at this altitude.

John Crowe of Pendleton, was here last week buying horses.

Miss Cora Dale of Waitsburg, is teaching a very fine school in district No. 79.

William Futter has gone to Alberta to look up a stock range.

The Cattlemen's Association will soon hold for higher prices for beef on the hoof.

William Futter sold 30 head of steers at 4 cents per pound.

WEDNESDAY'S LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Grubbe, of Holdman, spent the day in Pendleton.

Frank Rack, the well known Echo farmer, was a Pendleton visitor today.

Miss Nora Snyder, of Grass Valley, is visiting friends in the city for a few days.

You want to see E. L. Smith for information regarding the little Holt harvester.

Full stock of extras for Holt harvesters on hand at E. L. Smith's, 311 Court street.

G. E. Stocker will take horses to pasture at his ranch, 2½ miles west of Alba, Or.

R. B. Stanfield, the Echo farmer and stockman, was a Pendleton business visitor today.

John A. McIntyre, one of the prominent residents of Athena, was a Pendleton visitor today.

S. F. Moore, one of the prominent residents of Adams, was a Pendleton business visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Richardson, of Cold Springs, spent the day visiting with friends in the city.

Asa B. Thomson returned to his home in Echo this morning, after a day's visit in Pendleton on business.

H. A. Richardson, of Helix, was a Pendleton visitor today, having come in to hear the full returns of the election.

For Sale—A Holt Junior Combined Harvester, 1902 model, in good condition. Apply to Louis F. Anderson, Pendleton, Or.

Wanted—A good girl to do general housework in family of three. Good wages. Call on Mrs. W. L. Thompson, 415 Water street.

Horace Walker, county commissioner, left yesterday afternoon for his home at Helix, after having spent several days in Pendleton.

I handle the celebrated Holt combined harvester, and have any size from an eight-foot to 36-foot cut. Either for horse power or engine power. E. L. Smith, 311 Court St.

E. L. Barnett, a prominent citizen of Athena, and one of the republican leaders of the county, was a Pendleton visitor today, coming over to hear the full returns of the election.

I have the machine that pleases the farmers. Time and trial have proven the worth of the Holt combined harvester, and it has been demonstrated to be the most successful made. E. L. Smith, 311 Court street.

I have sold a great many Holt combined harvesters in this and surrounding counties, and the fact that I have never had a dissatisfied buyer or trouble with any customer, proves that the Holt is the machine to buy and that the public is fally dealt with. E. L. Smith, 311 Court street.

Do you know about Jersey cattle? We offer a few choicely bred yearling bulls from our famous Hazel Fern herd; at specially reduced prices, to make room for next crop of youngsters. We will give you valuable pointers on Jersey stock. Better write us today for prices on bulls, and tell us the kind of animal you desire. Address F. E. McEldowney, Supt. Ladd's Farm, 1260 Milwaukee Ave., Portland, Oregon.

THE WOOD SUPPLY.

About 4,000 Cords at Kamela and Perhaps More at Meacham Awaiting Buyers at the Right Price.

There is estimated to be 4000 cords of wood in the timber tributary to Kamela, ready for a buyer. A large number of men have been employed in that vicinity during the past winter and the best timber for miles around the station has been thoroughly culled out.

Yesterday an offer was made to Kamela woodmen of $2.75 per cord for 1000 cords on board the cars, but the offer was refused, the owners holding for $3.75 on board the cars. Not very much wood is being hauled into the stations at this time, as the roads are still in bad condition.

A still greater amount has been cut at Meachar which is not sold at this time.

First Thinning of Beets.

About 20 men were discharged temporarily from the Echo beet field last night, the first thinning of the beets having been completed. The crop is in excellent condition and a large yield of very high sugar per cent beets will be harvested there. The weeding and later thinning must be done yet. The land at Echo requires very little weeding, however, because of the freedom from weeds.

Piety is much more than a long face and a nasal twang.

IN CIRCUIT COURT

SOME IMPORTANT CASES TO BE TRIED THIS TERM.

Famous O. R. & N. Tax Case Will Go to Its First Trial, With a Prospect of Landing in the United States Supreme Court—Criminal Docket is Short, But Has Some Important Cases That Will Be Called at This Term—Court Meets June 13.

The circuit court will convene Monday next, the session having been deferred until that time at the order of Judge Ellis, and owing to the election.

The docket will be short and but a few cases of any importance appear. Outside of the criminal business there will be but little to do.

O. R. & N. Tax Case.

Perhaps what is destined to be one of the famous cases of the county and of the state for that matter, will make its initial appearance at this term, and that is the case of the O. R. & N. against the county, in which a reduction of the assessment made by C. P. Strain will be asked for.

The company has been gathering data for some time, having started the contention before the county commissioners soon after the levy was made public. At that time the court sustained the levy as made by Mr. Strain, and now comes the company before the circuit court asking for a stay in execution, and a writ of review to issue from the court against the county. It is asked by the company that the court go over the assessment and investigate various charges of irregularity in the assessment and injustice in valuation alleged against the assessor. It is also asked that the sheriff be restrained from taking any steps for the collection of the delinquent taxes of the company, pending the settlement of the suit.

It is the intention of the company to fight the case through all of the courts here. It can well afford to spend all the money which such a course would necessitate, if it could secure a material reduction in the assessment, not on account of the money to be saved in taxes at this time and in this county, but on account of the moral effect such a decision would have on other counties that are awaiting the outcome for a favorable opportunity to add to the valuation now placed on railroad property generally throughout the state.

Light Criminal Docket.

The criminal docket will not be very heavy, but it is the intention of District Attorney Hailey to clean up, as much as may be, all the cases now standing, as this is his last appearance as attorney for the people. He wishes to leave a clean docket for his successor.

George Clay, the man who stole the horse and buggy from George Froome and drove into Washington with the rig, where he was captured, will have to answer to the charge of larceny by bailee.

William Morton, the sheepherder, who shot and nearly killed Pat Dougery, his employer over a dispute about wages, will be tried at this term for assault with intent to kill.

Jack McDonald, accused of the larceny of a harness from the Froome barn, will be tried on the charge of larceny from a building.

Hugh Roble and Robert Montgomery, who are out on bonds for having given whiskey to Annie Githens, the 14-year-old daughter of the Athena postmaster, will also have their trial at this time.

L. P. Snyder the cowboy from Texas, who slashed Flavell Moore, in a drunken quarrel in the tenderloin, is in the county jail awaiting trial at this term of court. He will not be held for the full charge that could be placed against him, as it is thought that he had more provocation for his deed than is generally known. He will be charged with simple assault and battery.

M. B. King, the "captain of the government geological survey company," who bought the big bill of goods at Younger's grocery store for which he offered large checks, is also in the county hotel and will have to answer the charge of having forged evidences of debt in his possession, with fraudulent intent.

The old wheat case of J. M. Walker vs. W. E. Bond, will in all probability be brought up for settlement at this term. It is the case in which it is alleged that Bond, while manager of the Athena Flouring Mill Company, sold wheat, the property of the plaintiff, which was stored at the warehouse of the mill.

Norris & Rowe Coming.

Fresh from the confines of the winter quarters; bright with its paint of red and gold; with its glittering attractive newness; once again comes to us the ever popular, ever welcome Norris & Rowe's shows, only this time they come to us in all the glory of a full-fledged circus—for let it be known that the Norris & Rowe shows have grown—the sturdy, lusty, healthy growth of the trained animal show to the marvelous heights of the dignified, full and complete two-ringed and elevated stage circus.

First among those worthy of mention are the human actors, the six marvelous Belfords, the world's greatest acrobats; the five flying Lavans, the most sensational of all aerial gymnasts; Melnotte, La Nole and Melnotte, Europe's premier comedy high wire artists; the Gardner Family, six heroes of the high horizontal bars; the graceful Groh's, five of the most remarkable equilibrists extant; the three McDonald brothers, foremost trick cyclists; a Royal Japanese troupe of eight of the Mikado's most famed athletes; then come the animal actors, the always interesting trained animal exhibition; the performing elephants, camels, lions, tigers, hyenas, llamas, buffaloes, kangaroos, ostriches, elk, deer, goats and monkeys. Herbert Rumbley's school of educated seals, Herr Geisler's herd of comedy elephants; quartet of cakewalking horses, the enchanting pony ballet, the Roman hippodrome, the million dollar new menagerie and ever so many other acts, novelties and animals that can not all be mentioned in the confines of a single newspaper article.

There will be the usual marvelous street display parade at 10 and two performances will be given in this city, at 2 and 8 o'clock Thursday, June 16.

Sold High Priced Cow.

W. O. Minor sold a Shorthorn cow, calf and a yearling to H. W. Peel at Spokane. The price paid was $800 for the three. They are very fine cattle and will compose a part of Mr. Peel's show herd for the coming season.—Heppner Times.

Prominent Pilot Rock Man.

A. Perard, of Pilot Rock, is in town today. His sons, Albert and Desire Perard, who have been attending school at Spokane, will be here in a few days to visit during the summer with their father at Pilot Rock.
