Which will be you?

three months from now

TODAY both overalls look just about alike to you. You see them on the counter—new, comfortable and sturdy looking. It's really hard to tell which one should cost more than the other.

But look ahead three months from now. You're going to give them some rough treatment during that time. They'll get dirty and they'll be washed.

How will they look then? Will they still fit comfortably? Will they be a nice bright blue? Will they be free from rips caused by strains that the cloth should have withstood.

Think of these things when you buy the overall, instead of regretting them months later when it's too late.

The extra strength and lower wear that are in the heavy EIGHT OUNCE CLOTH of which only Oshkosh B'Gosh Overalls are made is one reason why you may be sure the overall will look as good to you next month, as it does today and fit as well.

The other reason is the famous Oshkosh B'Gosh guarantee—"They MUST make good or we will," which means exactly what it says. When next you buy, INSIST on Oshkosh B'Gosh. Shift the responsibility to us.

LONG SKIRTS ARE SAID TO BE DANGEROUS FOR WOMEN—THE SHORT ONES ARE DANGEROUS TO THE MEN.

The lady next door declares she can never trust her husband. He's liable to speak around and come home any night before she gets in.

The slow thinkers live longest says a prominent psychologist. No if they cross the street.

In addition to keeping your auto's wared, a pair of gray spats makes you look like an actor.

Revenue collectors aren't the only people that tax your patience.

OH, SLUSH!
Do you carrot all for me?
My heart beets for you.
With your turnip nose,
And your radish hair,
You are a peach,
If we cantelope,
Lettuce Marry
Weed make a swell pear.

The modern youth may not know how to shake down the furniture, but he knows how to shake down the old man.

"My wife," confides a La Grandeian, "read up one of my old love letters last week and was unusually smooth to remark that she didn't know why they picked poor old Anarchus as the champion liar."

Some men never get any exercise except when the wind blows off their hats.

To save time is to lengthen life, but it generally results in trying a board missing trains.

"Are you a mind reader?"
"Yes."
"Can you read my mind?"
"Yes."
"Well, why don't you go there?"

"WILL PULL THROUGH"
Spite of all the trouble,
We'll pull through;
Single file or double,
We'll pull through;
What though the venom blows
O'er worlds of human woes,
Somewhere we'll pear the rose—
We'll pull through!

If attention is the seed, why doesn't it touch a woman that no other comes would look at her darned twice?
