About this time the campers return and tell what a great time they had, but they never mention—how the mosquitos bit them; how the ants crawled over the table and provisions; how the women were scared of the snakes; how the noises kept them awake at night; how disagreeable it was when they had to crawl out in the morning; how bugs made nests in the blankets; how they had to squibble over how the work should be divided; how the smoke from the camp fire got in every one's eyes; how inconvenient it was to wash; how they wished every day that they were back home; how they became disgusted with canned goods, and other incidents too numerous to enumerate.

Judge Galloway adjurned court at Dallas Tuesday at 4 o'clock, to perform the marriage ceremony for his life time friend, Glen O. Holman, who was married that day to Mrs. Martha Holman of Dallas. Incidentally the lawyer had the best of the judge, for just after the election last year when Judge Galloway was being congratulated he remarked that he would adjourn court any time to marry the first lawyer in his district who wanted his services. Mr. Holman walked into the court room and whispered the promise to the judge, and court was adjourned. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Holman.—McMinnville News Reporter.

A strange looking fellow applied at this office one day last week, says the McMinnville News Reporter, for assistance to "get something to eat." Said he was looking for a job of "soliciting," or an agency of some kind. He had been working in the hayfields, but didnot like the job, and quit. He was advised that the farmers were needing help, but that was not in his line. Be it said to the credit of Oregon, this fellow has been here only a short time, and our people will agree with him that it is "too long." This fellow is like some others who come here. They are looking for a snap, and when they find that the snaps have all just been engaged they hit the trail again.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation" For sale by A C Marsters & Co

Coming to the Fair

Many of the people of Douglas county are getting ready to make exhibits of poultry, livestock or products at the District fair to be held at Roseburg Tuesday, Sept 12, and to continue five days. We have heard a great many people say they were going to bring their tents and camp on the fair grounds which affords a beautiful and convenient site. The fair will be a hummer.

A Clever Little Invention.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Guerin, of Myrtle Point, made us a pleasant call Friday. Mr. Guerin had in his possession a very ingenious little invention on which he recently received a patent It was an umbrella handle around which was two moveable rings on which was figures the same as on a safe combination. To unlock and open the umbrella the combination must be set, which was simple but effective. He said umbrellas with this attachment should cost only from 25 to 50 cents extra and every person could have their own combination. This invention promises to fill a long felt want, for what would be the use of stealing an umbrella if you could not work the combination and open it? Tom you certainly have a fortune within your very grasp.

"The Half Was Never Told"

There are people who believe the world is just entering the Millennial Reign of Christ, and that a wonderful age of progress, both material and spiritual, is about to be ushered in (preceded however by ten or fifteen years of the most intense strife and anarchy.) They believe that the earth and the great bulk of humanity, both present and past, will, during the next thousand years, be restored to the perfection which six thousand years ago was exampled in the Garden of Eden.

They reject the idea of eternal torment, claiming it to be unscriptural; asserting that only those who are guilty of sinning wilfully against the fullest light (information) are to be considered incorrigible; these, and these only, are to be destroyed in the Second Death.

They believe that God has for six thousand years been allowing man to gain a sad experience with sin, and that he will during the next thousand years (the Millennium) restrain sin, that man may see righteousness in all of its reign. Having had six thousand years, experience with sin and one thousand years' experience with righteousness, man will be well prepared to make a wise choice as to which he will serve, and will then be tested by the loosing of Satan to deceive those who during this long period shall have failed to become well grounded in godliness. Those being thus deceived will go down into the Second Death from which there will be no resurrection. But space will not permit a rehearsal of all the peculiar views of these people. Come and hear a discourse along these lines on "God's Eternal Purpose." If you are seeking the truth, you will be amply repaid for all time and effort by attending.

Undenominational. Seats free. No Collection. Meeting at 7:30 p m., Thursday, Aug. 31st, at the Christian Church.
