SATURDAY TO SETTLE TITLE

SAN FRANCISCO (By the Associated Press)—When the football teams of Stanford and California meet at Berkeley next Saturday, they will settle not only the annual traditional rivalry that makes the big game of these parts but they will determine the supremacy of the Pacific coast inter-collegiate conference. They are the only undefeated elevens in the conference.

Stanford has won every game, while California's victorious march was halted though not turned back by a 7-7 tie with Washington. The Idaho Vandals lurk just behind the two leaders, with a record of four games won and one lost, but facing a tough session with Southern California at Los Angeles next Saturday.

Stanford romped through its semi-final test Saturday at Palo Alto, thrashing Montana, 41 to 3. Coach Warner used his second string mostly. But he started Erickson Nevers, so that the line-splitting fullback could have a good workout after spending most of the season on the side lines nursing an injured ankle. He went out during the second quarter, not limping perceptibly. Later it was reported, however, that his weak ankle had been hurt. He probably will not be in the California game, but it is considered doubtful whether he will be able to play long.

The only other conference game of the week end was played between Oregon and Washington State at Portland and ended in a 7-7 tie.

California went outside the conference and beat Nevada, 27 to 6.

Union Downed 28 to 6 By La Grande Eleven to shove through—and so it happened. After an interchange of punts and two first downs from passes Richardson carried the ball over. A try for goal failed.

Blue Whip Returns.

But the Tigers were not disheartened in the slightest. They began making yardage immediately and after the team contributed two first downs from scrimmage, Hammett plunged through the line for a five yard gain, placing the ball on the two yard line. Carrying the ball through the center of the line on the next play, Hammett went over, and added another point by kicking the ball squarely through the cross-bars.

Safety Scored.

No more scoring came in the third quarter but in the fourth, after some fumbles and punts, the Tigers gained possession of the pigskin deep in Union territory. Union, backed up on their five-yard line, held for downs and prepared to punt. The Tiger line rushed through, blocked the punt, which a Union man recovered behind his goal line. A weaver of the Blue and White tackled him for a safety, making the score 22 to 6.

A few minutes before the game ended, nine fresh players trotted upon the field relieving the doughty second string warriors. Howard Kerr came near duplicating his feat of the Rose-La Grande game when he intercepted a Union pass at midfield and raced off 40 yards before downed. Fumbles and slippery field caused La Grande to lose possession of the ball, which was sent back 34 yards by a Union punt. Then a steady drive, terminating when Sherwood carried the ball over, ended the scoring.

Hammett Star.

To Hammett, who did most of the passing and added some nice defensive work, line plunging and kicking, goes the stellar honors. Hammett scored two touchdowns and was directly responsible for another owing to his excellent hurling of forward passes.

The game was exciting throughout, the Union team putting up a splendid fight, which was matched by the Tiger attack and defense. Each team forced the enemy to punt time and again.

In actual yardage gained, however, La Grande outplayed Union as decisively as the score would indicate. The local team made a total of 16 first downs to Union's two, both from forward passes. Ten of the La Grande 16-yard advances were from scrimmage as added by an aerial attack.

On the whole the game was well played, despite frequent fumbling, and the spectators received their money's worth.

La Grande plays Pendleton at Pendleton next Saturday.

Three-Round Boxing Matches Apparently Popular in Denver

DENVER, COLO. (AP)—Denver is said to be the only city that has three-round boxing. Longer distance bouts, 10, 12 and 15-round affairs, were offered until about two years ago when District Attorney Philip Vile clamped down the lid on such contests. Later he granted permission for three-round matches, allowing a fourth round if necessary to determine a victor.

The district attorney warned the promoters that contestants must not be paid more than $25, more longer than four rounds or more than the stipulated amount. He construes as "prize fights." The others, he contends, may be termed "boxing exhibitions" and held within the state law.

A woman accompanied by her coffin was among the transatlantic passengers arriving at New York the other day. The woman has been a widow for 30 years and her loyalty to her husband's memory is such that she cannot bear the thought that they might be buried in separate graves. She therefore never books a passage without the proviso that she shall not be buried at sea. She has to cross the Atlantic a number of times each year on business and the coffin is always placed in her cabin.

The Union truck hauled load after load of our building material into Union. It must be the Union people figure they can save money by buying from us.

We're selling nails all over the valley, even as far as Wallowa. People at first thought we were selling inferior material as the price was so remarkably low, but they have gotten over that. They understand now that it is the low profit plan. If you wish to buy Wash Tubs, Wash Boilers, Milk Pails, Skills, Flexible Flyer Sleds, etc., don't forget that we have ordered them and the prices will be next door to wholesale.

Nails, $4.98 base in keg lots. Shingles, $2.40 and $3.65.

Scared by Lion—No Lyin'

Sam never was so scared in all his life. Here he was, a modern Daniel in the lion's den, with old Nero right on top of him. But Nero, for some reason or other, didn't think much of Sam as food. Evidently he had just had his dinner. Sam, though, surely put up a couple terrible minutes—they seemed like years—until they opened the door and let him out. The picture was taken on the Gary Lion Farm at El Monte, Calif.

Well, lots of funny news today. Chicago girl caught two robbers. She may catch herself a husband next.

the famous Russian crown jewels. Former aide of Czar Katz had planned possession of these gems which disappeared with the assassination of the czar and his family.

Katz had described himself as an economic leader of the middle east. He in Los Angeles he showed considerable profits in real estate, and it is believed in stocks and grain.

But a double gun bullet, police believe, is the cause that shot his life in his luxurious home here came from the gun of an underworld avenger seeking revenge.

Two Women Involved.

Also two women are involved, it is believed, in the affair. The other, Mrs. Hedda Harmsen, dancer and actress, was engaged to Katz.

"I had got rid of him for a week," the local points. Letters from her to Katz are in possession of the police. In Hollywood she is known as "The Countess."

Katz was known to be wealthy. He carried large sums of money with him. His luxurious yacht, his lavish surroundings, his automobiles all advertised his wealth. And it is said he had concealed stocks and in diamonds in his apartment—diamonds that are missing now.

Whatever might have caused his death, friends agree that the latter part of Katz's life was overshadowed with fear. It polarized his smile and changed his mirth.

"That the person who fired the gun with such fear that his mind close expressed it and the slayer will be known," say those investigating the crime.

Meeting Decides to Organize An International Farm Bloc

BRUGG, Switzerland, (AP)—Politicians the world over will be struggling with an international farm bloc, known as the Green International, if the plans recently worked out here under the leadership of Professor Lance are carried into execution. Representatives of the United States, England, Germany, France, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, Holland and Hungary attended the meeting at which it was decided to open a permanent secretarial office, immediately with a view to launching the organization as a convention to be held next year in Warsaw.

Fort Worth, Tex., taxpayers fought over their taxes, which was a peculiar fiscal fight.

Why Slam Down Your Telephone Receiver?

Of course, when you come to the end of a disagreeable conversation, you may feel inclined to bring the talk to an abrupt close by jamming down the receiver with a bang that threatens to break the ear-drum of the party at the other end of the line.

But why slam it down when you aren't pleased?

Some people, even in the best of humor, have the habit of putting their 'phones out of business by giving them hard usage when they don't realize it. These instruments are very delicate and your careful treatment of them means fewer repairs and better service, and it pays to be considerate of the one at the other end of the line.
