If You Are Proud of Your Ankles

you will especially appreciate the close-clinging fit of Humming Bird Pure Silk Hosiery. Tapered by a gradual tightening of the stitch, from a well-rounded calf to a narrow ankle, repeated washings cannot impair Humming Bird's smart "lines."

Humming Bird's faultless fitting foot is also secured by an exclusive knitting process—there is no "temporary" fit produced by stretching and pressing, no "sole-racking" fit produced by seaming

Humming Bird's wearing qualities match their fit. Humming Bird's ultra-smart colors match any costume. Newest Autumn shades now being shown.

New Record Created By List of Eligibles For Kentucky Races

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Record-breaking nominations for the Breeders Futurity of 1925 and 1927, and a large list named for the inaugural of the Centennial Futurity, feature races at the Kentucky Association track here, are

The Brooklyn Futurity, the 1925 classic of 1925, to be run at the fall meeting Nov. 21 to 27, has 40 eligibles for its 222 nominations, eliminated by the complete list of eligibles.

Fourth payment having been made on the number this month. The list closed July 1, 1927 with 1000 payments on 472 nominations.

The Prospective Futurity, the new stake race to have its initial running at the Spring meeting in 1926, which year marks the 50th anniversary of the association, received 320 nominations. This race, like the Breeders Futurity, is for 2-year-olds and is over the Futurity route, about 6½ furlongs on turf, for fillies.

The Breeders' Futurity for 1927 (foals of 1925) closed with 1000 nominations. John E. Madden of Hamburg Place, Lexington, was the largest nominator, naming 54 colts.

The list of eligibles for the 1925 Futurity shows a great number of really good prospects, including the get of Man-o'-War, Peter Pan, Sir Cricket, The Finn, Black Toney, Fair Play, Sunstar and Broomstick.

A number of these prospects already have won stakes this year, while others will be starting on the turf when Turfdom goes at Lexington shortly. Upon the showing of the colts in the race for quality depends whether the owners nominate him for the Kentucky Derby.

Walter J. Salmon and Harry F. Sinclair, New York sportsmen, had the luck with such eligibles each as Harry Payne Whitney, New York, and Idle Hour Farm (E. R. Bradley), Lexington, have the 1925 winner Grandfather Rabb (Mrs. Payne Whitney, New York), and Idle Hour Farm (M. A. H. H. Jones, Kentucky). Elm Farm (Elmer Sherman, New York) has Fable Boy (G. H. Walker), and F. E. Mallon, Lexington, each has two entries.

Elephants and "Aqua Pura"

[illegible]

"Wonder how many tourists the elephants will drink, will wear this year?" is the question of every small boy, who looks forward to coming for his way into the big show when it comes to town.

Mr. Barnes has made it a point all winter for the little folk this year, however, by comparing water-drink records to find the "aqua pura" in the menagerie.

In addition to the elephants, the small boys may see lions in every cage, the largest and fiercest performers ever seen in the world, which will be found in the Court of Queen Anne. The performances this year, the largest in the history of the show, are given in a new 180 foot big top. Three rings of equestrian features will be included in the tent, in addition to more than a hundred pretty girls from the land of California, all of whom have appeared in some of the famous motion picture productions of the season.

And last, but not least, there will be the giant parade that — Jim Barnes promises.

It's the show that's different every year.

[illegible]

The Canadian Hockey League of Port Dalhousie, have been judging from the rather and number of entries the event promises to be the most successful ever held by the association.

The leading racing clubs of Philadelphia, Detroit and Buffalo will be represented in competition for honors with scullers from Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton, Brockville and other Canadian cities. The senior eight-oared event is the principal feature of the regatta. This event was won last year by the Argonauts of Toronto, who defeated the Undines of Philadelphia. The Argonauts will send a strong crew to defend the title.

It also is expected that Jackson Durnan of Toronto will defend his title as senior singlet champion, which he won last year by defeating Blessing of Philadelphia.

The senior double championship is held by the Undines of Philadelphia and a club from that city holds the title for the senior fours.

The Parish Christian Endeavor, at the suggestion of the Methodist pastor, hearing the name, changed the prospectus of a free offering meeting and Sunday-school picnic last year, which is usually held in the "middle" of August, to a week-end picnic, to see what the "middle" means as which the neighborhood celebrated last August.

Why the One-Profit* Coach Excels

—it is engineered and built complete by one organization—Studebaker. It is a perfectly co-ordinated, harmonious unit. This means better performance, greater comfort and increased mileage at an accepted coach price

AN AUTOMOBILE, like any other highly specialized machine, runs more smoothly—lasts longer—gives greater satisfaction—when its thousands of elements are carefully co-ordinated into one harmonious unit.

Obviously, a better car can be produced when all vital parts are designed, engineered and manufactured by one organization.

The Studebaker car is built on this "one-profit" principle. Not only all the engines, but also all the bodies, and all the axles, gear sets, differentials, springs, clutches, steering gears, gray iron castings and drop forgings are manufactured in Studebaker plants. This is not true of any other automobile in the fine car field.

The Studebaker, therefore, being built as a unit—functions as a unit—with all of the advantages of unit over assembled construction.

*By a "one-profit" car we mean a motor car that, in its vital parts, is manufactured by one organization—thus cutting out the extra profits and purchasing which arise when vital parts are bought from others. There are only two cars that can be thus classified, because —of all the makers of passenger cars built in the United States, only 2 make all their own motors, bodies, clutches, springs, axles, gear sets, differentials, steering gear, gray iron castings and drop forgings. One of these 2 is Studebaker and the other is Ford.

"Coach" in name—Coupe in quality

The Studebaker Special Six Coach is an outstanding example of the finer quality made possible by this "one-profit" principle of motor car manufacture.

This automobile is really a fine 5-passenger coupe, but is called a "coach" because it carries the lowest price at which an enclosed car has ever been sold on the famous Studebaker Special Six chassis.

In this Coach fine grades of upholstery are used. You'll find the same quality of workmanship and materials in all hidden places that you see out in the open.

Many of the superiorities of this Coach are invisible—and therefore all the more important. But here are some you can easily see and check against competing cars: gasoline gauge on the dash, 8-day clock, automatic windshield cleaner, rear view mirror, door pockets, rear window curtains, ash receiver, trunk rack, ornamental pull-cord, cowl ventilator, stop light, dome light, tire carrier locked by the same key that locks door, and the splendid coincidental lock to ignition and steering wheel. Lights are operated from a switch on the steering wheel which is left free for this convenience by the elimination of the spark lever. In all Studebakers the spark is automatically controlled by the speed of the motor.

In its insistence upon comfort, this car is typically Studebaker. There is comfort in the extra heavy cushions—in the big springs—in the full balloon tires for which steering gear, fenders, etc., have been specially designed—in the ease with which passengers may enter or leave the rear of the car—in the extra large windows and windshield.

You can buy all this style, comfort and performance at the price because this is the only "one-profit" coach on the market today.

Buy now—no "yearly models"

You may buy this Coach today—or on any day of the year—with the assurance that there will be no "annual announcement" to make it artificially a "last year's model."

For Studebaker has discontinued the custom of presenting a new line of cars every year. Instead, Studebakers will be kept up to date all of the time.

Therefore you can buy this Coach in safety NOW.

Billy Evans Says

FOUR CLUBS SHARE.

The four first division clubs will share in the world series receipts this year.

Previously only the first three clubs got a cut. Making it four will not affect the shares of the second and third clubs, it will be taken from the winners.

In certain respects the running of the world series receipts first there were, that year, had been a good thing for baseball. In just one way has it been a handicap.

By giving the first four clubs a crack at the Dodgers it kept all the teams with a chance on their own until the finish.

In the old days if one club got set, it gave out to front with to play. The race became a pennant. Some of the clubs created it as a joy ride.

With about $300 as the greatest reward possible, all the clubs now put forth their best efforts until the curtain is rung down.

Only in the matter of sportsmanship with visiting players has the new set up hurt. Clubs with a chance absolutely refuse to try out promising recruits, they put their hopes on the veterans.

While this is to be regretted, still the advantages of letting all four clubs share are so many, that the one handicap can be gracefully overlooked.

SARAZEN'S WIN.

The winning of the Metropolitan open by Gene Sarazen was of interest to golf enthusiasts.

Three years ago, the season of 1922, Sarazen won the national open, also the professional golfer's title, two of the most important championships.

He was the sensation of the year and the experts said he might easily be world champion to be a success in all sporting championships the world.

This unfortunately went wrong. Something of the high spirits, energy, Sarazen's game displayed the preceding year and very much in his favor, got worse.

The winning of the Metropolitan open from a big field, was the first time that his name appeared, was right, for the last year he was one of the important cogs in the long game in quality.

Gene seems to have regained for the last, placing the Grange Sports title at 71, two under par.

By winning of the Metropolitan he takes by the experts to mean that Sarazen has regained his winning ways.
