Says Mrs. Coolidge Does Not Talk Business With Husband

NEW YORK, (AP)— Mrs. Coolidge never discusses business with the President, C. Bascom Slemp, his former secretary, discloses in his new book on "The Mind of the President."

"But she has provided a home atmosphere that has made infinitely easier the development of the President's unique personality," Mr. Slemp adds. "There he has refreshed his weary spirit when the day was done. There he has ever found the day the warming fire of sympathy and affection, the inspiration of a happy and contented companion, the fortifying example of another blameless life."

Mr. Slemp's book, to be published by Doubleday, Page and Co., is made up of extracts from the President's public utterances.

If there is a single man at Union county that doesn't read this ad I want him to write me a letter and I will make an effort to speak to him next time. Now shut one eye and look here with the other. Gay Hayden, at The Bootery sells shoes to keep your feet dry and we sell Cedar shingles and roofing to keep your head dry. I know some stores down town that sell clothes to keep your body dry but they might not like it if I mentioned their names. As everybody knows we started our lumber business about 18 months ago in an old barn. Now we have a Jersey cow and some Chinchilla rabbits and everybody bids us good morning. Oh, yes, No. 2 Cedar shingles, $1.95 per M. Nails, $4.95 base, in keg lots. Good, dependable house paint, $2.35 per gallon. Ask the people that us it.

Weigh 5 Pounds More In Thirty Days

Ask Red Cross Drug Store, Glass Drugs, or any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. They cost but little, are sugar coated and as pleasant to take as candy.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good, healthy, solid flesh and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on 5 pounds or more in 30 days. As a matter of fact, your druggist is authorized to return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in six weeks.

Be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—60 cents.—Adv.

New Color Scheme Introduced in Tom Mix Drama

Tom Mix fans will have something new to discuss after witnessing "The Yankee Senor," a William Fox production at the Star theater.

This is the screen version of "The Conquistador," the popular novel by Katherine Fullerton Gerould, and many of the scenes are in Technicolor.

It fell to the lot of the western ace to introduce the new color scheme at the Fox studios, and Emmett Flynn, directing Mix, has made the best possible use of the innovation.

"The Yankee Senor" is a colorful story of Old Mexico and affords Mix a wonderful opportunity for some splendid action. Many of the patio scenes are strikingly beautiful.

This Mix feature and the comedy "On The Go" will be shown today and Saturday for the last times.

Realism Is Noted In Carey Film At Sherrys

More sympathetic and true than anything he has ever done before. That's the way Hunt Stromberg describes Harry Carey's characterization in "Silent Sanderson," his newest production, which comes to the Sherry theater for a two day run today.

It is true that Carey, as the amiable whimsical Joe Parsons, strikes that note of sympathetic realism which is all too infrequently registered on the screen.

The most vital thing in Joel's life is his love for his younger brother. Beyond all selfishness, it spreads its protection about the boy—striving to ward off the evil of the world. Joel fails in this, not because his love falters, but because the world's evil is stronger than the good in one man's heart. But before he fails, he makes a sacrifice—harder than death—to save his brother's happiness. He stifles his own love for Judith Benson, so that she will marry the boy who loves her.

This lovable character has been developed with deft touches by Kate Corbaley, the author, scenarist Harvey Gates, and Director Scott R. Dunlap.

The first sight of Joel,— a huge bulk of a he-man working among his fantastic little herd, fighting to get water for dying cattle, caring for the younger ones with all the tenderness of a woman, is enough to make whatever follows of kindliness and sacrifice seem logical as life.

"That Royle Girl" Attracts Large Crowd First Night

The potent lure of D. W. Griffith drew a large and very much pleased crowd to the Arcade theater last night to witness the local premiere of his latest cinema opus, "That Royle Girl," a dynamic picturization of Edwin Balmer's absorbing Cosmopolitan Magazine serial.

No ordinary jazz film, no cheap clap-trap melodrama is this striking, ultra-modern picture of life in the jazz zone and underworld of Chicago, but a powerful dramatic document that is a brave mixture of colorful entertainment and vital truth.

In this, his initial Paramount production, Griffith demonstrates anew that he is a past master in directorial technique—the art of bringing out and emphasizing all those intimate human touches that lift the picture out of the make-believe into the real.

"That Royle Girl" has for its central character a pretty little flapper-waif in whose make-up there is a curios blending of child-like faith and worldly cynicism. Handicapped by a no-account father and craving the jazzy excitement surrounding her, she becomes the storm center in an underworld drama of tragedy and intrigue, which reaches a sensational climax during a cyclonic storm.

Carol Dempster lends her wistful personality and delicate, classic beauty to the role and scores a distinct personal triumph. W. C. Fields, with his comedy, antics, is a joy as the good-for-nothing "Pop". James Kirkwood, as the stern district attorney, and Harrison Ford, portraying the flashing jazz band leader, give an excellent account of themselves.

"That Royle Girl" will be the attraction at the Arcade theater tonight and Saturday.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of Union County, Oregon.

Vern Hamlin, Plaintiff, vs.
Frank B. Hamlin, Defendant.

To the above named defendant, Frank B. Hamlin:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein against you in the above entitled court and cause within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, viz: February 19th, 1926, and if you fail so to answer for want thereof the plaintiff will take a decree against you for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: For the dissolution of the marriage relation now existing between plaintiff and defendant and for the custody of the minor children of said parties. This summons is published by virtue of an order of the above entitled court made and entered February 18th, 1926, directing service of summons herein by publication of said summons once a week for six consecutive weeks in the La Grande Evening Observer, a newspaper published in La Grande, Oregon, and fixing the date of the first publication thereof as February 19th, 1926.

Women Tell

Others how this new hygienic pad discards easily as tissue — no laundry

BECAUSE one woman so advises others, and because doctors so advise their patients, women are discarding the old-time "sanitary pad" for a new and better way.

Eight in 10 better-class women now use "KOTEX."

✓ Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Deodorizes, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

Obtainable at all drug and department stores simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Package of 12 costs only a few cents. Proves old ways a needless risk. In fairness to yourself, try it.
