The New Felts Are New Style

You will recognize at once that the new felts are to be a different shape and the quicker you change, the better dressed you will feel. You may "snap" the brim down, or if your taste is more conservative wear it in its natural shape. The light and medium grays are mighty popular with young men, but there are other colors to choose from. Price

MOTHER WINS DEATH CLAIMS

SALEM, Ore., Mar. 16. (AP)—Sadie Cooper, a Columbia county woman, won two judgments in the supreme court today against the North Coast Power company, one for $4000 and another for $7500. The power company was appellant in both cases, the supreme court, in opinions by Justice Brown, affirming the lower court for Columbia county, Judge J. A. Eakin having heard the cases.

The suits grew out of the death of Walter Cooper, 12 years old, the woman's only son, who was electrocuted by coming into contact with uninsulated electric wires of the power company. In the case in which the $4000 judgment was awarded the woman appeared in an individual capacity; in the other as administratrix of the estate of her son.

The boy met his death May 24, 1922, when a picnic party of boys and girls from the Rainier school, went to a tract known as the "Newson tract," where several of the children climbed into a tree through which the wires ran. The woman alleged that the uninsulated wires running through a tree was so trimmed that it was attractive to children was a veritable death trap.

CAPTURE ENDS EXCITING RACE

MIAMI, Fla. Mar. 16.(AP)—A rumboat was captured here today after a 12-mile running battle by the authorities in an automobile, police boat and afoot. One detective was thrown overboard as were forty bags of liquor and two citizens were injured before the chase ended. Four men and a woman, alleged rum runners were arrested.

The chase started in the Miami canal, near the business district. An automobile occupied by J. H. Craig and Robert Hilburn was ordered into the chase by police. Soon a police boat joined, both firing as they went, with the rum runners returning the fire. Craig and Hilburn were cut by glass from the windshield of the car.

When the police boat drew near, one detective leaped aboard the rum runner but was thrown into the canal. The police boat gave up the chase but those in the automobile followed until the road became unnegotiable. They then followed on foot and came to the boat, a mile and a half further up the canal, with its crew throwing liquor overboard. Another skirmish followed before the boat's crew and cargo were captured.

SEVEN ESCAPE FROM L. A. NEW COUNTY JAIL

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 16. (AP)—One convicted murderer, another prisoner accused of killing a policeman, and a highwayman were at liberty here today following a break from the new county jail in which a turnkey was slugged and seriously injured. Three others who escaped were recaptured.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 16. (AP)—Seven men escaped from the new county jail here today after seriously beating a turnkey. All available officers were stationed at strategic points about the new 14-story hall of justice, on the top five floors of which the jail is located. It was thought some of the men might be hiding in the building. Two of the prisoners were recaptured.

The break occurred as a tank of prisoners were being given their breakfast on the eleventh floor. The bars to a tank on that floor had been sawed through and the men waited in a corridor for the turnkey. Beating him into insensibility, they took his keys, opened a fire escape door and descended toward the street.

The turnkey was found seriously injured and receiving hospital surgeons said his condition was critical.

Texans Kill Man Who Was Accused of Murder

CENTER POINT, Tex. Mar. 16. (AP)—Dragged from a bed where he lay wounded with a baby at his side, Frank Johnson charged with the murder of a neighbor farmer, was killed by a band of men here last night.

Johnson killed Homer Gibson in a fight Friday night is believed to have resulted from a dispute over what school the Johnson children were entitled to attend. In the fight with Gibson, Johnson was wounded.

Pepper Fires First Shot at Pinchot, Vare

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 16. (AP)—Senator George Wharton Pepper has fired the opening gun in his triangular contest, with Governor Gifford Pinchot and Representative William S. Vare, for the republican nomination for the United States senate at the primary election in May.

Declaring that Governor Pinchot's claim to allegiance to the Coolidge administration was "counterfeit" and that the people wanted "some one who is not the candidate of the brewery interests," Senator Pepper asserted voters would nominate neither Gov. Pinchot nor Congressman Vare.

"They want somebody who is a straight republican and not a counterfeit supporter of the Coolidge administration," said the senator. "They want somebody who is not the candidate of either the brewery interests nor of the lunatic fringe."
