WALL STREET TRADING DULL

NEW YORK, Apr. 5. (By the Associated Press)—Trading in today's stock market turned extremely dull but the price undertone was firm; attempts to force a renewal of the selling movement as a result of the sharp deficit shown in reserve shown in last Saturday's clearing house statement met with a failure when call money renewed at 4½ per cent and quickly dropped to four on the appearance of a large volume of interior funds. Official confirmation of the abandonment of plans for the merger of the Texas company and the California Petroleum company started a flurry of selling in the oil shares, California petroleum dropping from a high of 27¾ on Saturday to 27½, but it had rallied above 28 by early afternoon.

A sustained demand was apparent for the railroad and public utility shares which provided the bulk of nearly four score 1 to 4 point gains. Sugar shares were not affected by the omission of the dividends on American beet sugar common, which apparently had been discontinued. Considerable interest was manifested in the stock exchange figures on brokers' loans due to be issued after the close, preliminary and estimates ranging from $250,000,000 to $55,000,000. Oil companies continue to report unusually high earnings for 1925. Atlantic Refining showing $11.52 a share as compared with $6.59 in the previous year.

Closing Firm.

The closing was firm. Scattered profit taking developed in the final hour, but the early gains generally were well maintained and in some issues extended. Total sales approximated 1,100,000 shares.

Portland Produce Market Quiet Today

PORTLAND, Apr. 5. (AP)—Little or no activity was shown in the local produce markets this morning as buyers have not yet returned after laying in supplies for the Easter holiday.

Receipts of produce along the street was light as usual on Monday and prices were on a nominal scale.

Country dressed veal is quoted at 18 to 18½c with choice light kegs at 18½ to 19c. Fancy dressed meats continue to move out promptly.

In the poultry list there was a lack of demand shown and prices were barely steady. Supplies, however, are not heavy. Live hens ranged from 27 to 27 cents for hearies and light 5lbs 23 to 24 cents. Broilers quoted around 35 to 38 cents for fat stuff weighing over 1½ pounds. Turkeys dressed sell at 42 to 46 cents. No capons offered today.

Butter and egg markets remain steady with no new developments since the close of last week. There has been no session on the dairy exchange since last Thursday and board quotations still stand.

Some trading in old crop hops are reported in the Pacific northwest during the last few days at prices ranging all the way from 15 to 22 cents, depending on quality. There are very few old crop hops left in the hands of the growers and not much activity is expected in the market until the new crop is ready for harvesting. Contracting so far has been limited.

The wool market remains a sluggish affair with no improvement in sight for the near future. Wool markets all over the country are lifeless.

'PEG LEG' JACK MAKES ESCAPE

TRENTON, N. J. Apr. 5. (AP)—Twenty-five deputies from the state prison here, aided by police of Camden and Philadelphia today were searching for "Peg Leg" Jack Gordon, holdup man, whose missing limb did not prevent his escape from the New Jersey penitentiary.

Gordon, a trusty, yesterday slugged a guard with a black jack and robbed him of a riot gun, revolver, his money and part of his clothes, lowered himself from a 22-foot wall, scaled another 18-foot barrier and made off in a waiting automobile before other guards were able to intercept him. The guard was not seriously injured.

Gordon and his wife Helen, who is still in prison, were serving 12 to 15 years sentence for a hold up committed five years ago. Recently Gordon was made a trusty and because of his excellent record and his infirmity, no prisoner was looked upon with less suspicion.

Gordon lost his leg, while serving with the famous Canadian "Princess Pat" regiment at Ypres.
