Did it ever occur to you that you are not making the best use of your time? That's the case with most of us, how about you? Part of your time, each day, devoted to careful reading of Journal Want Columns will prove very beneficial. How? In numerous ways. You get acquainted with the business world and its requirements. That alone is worth your attention.

See what is wanted today. Under "Business Chances" you can find most any kind of investment.

Under "For Sale—Real Estate" are a number of good bargains. Notice what E. M. Hogue has to offer.

Houses for rent, furnished and unfurnished, in various parts of the city, are advertised under "For Rent—Houses."

Laundry help is needed, and the Union Laundry company says what particular kind under "Female Help."

By the way. A good way to get good help is to advertise for it in a good place—that's in Journal Want Columns. Try them.

"Situations Wanted" advertisements are inserted two times free of charge.

Here's somebody who, for reasons not given, wants no children in the house, but will rent some "housekeeping rooms" to adults. Look them up, under "Housekeeping Rooms."

Another party has a 4-room flat for rent, to party of adults.

Journal Want Columns are great hunters. They'll find what you want, and get it quickly. Advertise your wants in them. 21 Words for 15 cents.

PROPOSALS FOR SUPPLIES.

Salem, Or., June 10, 1904.—The Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum hereby invites sealed proposals for furnishing the following supplies to the institution for the six months ending December 31, 1904: Groceries, mill feed and flour, meats and fish, dry goods, drugs, stationery, leather and findings, shoes, plumbing, furniture, hardware, tinning, crockery and glassware. Lists of said supplies will be furnished by the clerk of the board upon application. Samples can be seen at the asylum, and goods must be in accordance therewith. Where samples are required and not furnished by bidders the articles must be equal to samples to be seen at the asylum, and bids will be assumed to have been made on basis of samples. All goods must be in strict accordance with sample in original packages when possible, and delivered at the State Insane Asylum within 30 days after the contract is awarded, and bids must be on blank forms, which will be furnished, together with instructions to bidders, by the clerk, upon application. Each bid on flour or meat must be accompanied by a certified check of $300.00, and each bid on fish by a certified check of $75.00, and all other bids by certified checks equal to 10 per cent of the amount bid; checks of unsuccessful bidders to be returned immediately, and those of accepted bidders when the contract is completed. Bids must be inclosed in sealed envelopes, and directed to the board, care of the clerk, and plainly marked "Bids for Asylum Supplies," and the class of goods bid on should also be inscribed on the envelopes. Price, fitness and quality being equal, preference will be given to articles manufactured, grown or produced in the state. When a particular article is specifically called for, bids for other kind, or manufacture, or brand, equally good, will be entertained, but to insure recognition of such bids samples of the articles it is proposed to supply must accompany them. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to accept or reject any part of a bid. Bids will be opened at the Capitol at Salem, at 10 a. m. Friday, July 8, 1904.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum.

W. N. GATENS, Clerk.
