POETS OF THE PACIFIC COAST.

The West Shore offers monthly prizes as specified below for the best poems submitted for competition by residents of the Pacific coast, including British Columbia. Three or four will be selected for publication each week, and in the last issue of the month the names of the prize winners for the month will be announced. All poems not published will be returned. The contest closes each month on the fifteenth. Poems should not exceed forty lines in length. The judges are persons of literary culture not connected with The West Shore in any capacity. The following prizes are offered monthly:

First Prize—A volume of one of the standard poets, 12-mo. size, handsomely bound in full polished leather, with full gilt edges. The prize winner may designate his choice of the following volumes: Dante, Milton, Scott, Burns, Moore, Wordsworth, Browning, Poe, Jean Ingelow, Mrs. Hemans, Mrs. Browning, and Favorite Poems, a volume of choice selections from all the poets. These are all new books, specially issued as elegant gift editions, and are from the shelves of Stewart & Thompson, the well known bookellers of Portland.

Second Prize—A subscription to The West Shore for six months, to be sent to any address.

Third Prize—A subscription to The West Shore for three months, to be sent to any address.

Grand Prize—In addition to the monthly first prize, at the end of the year the poem that shall be decided to be the best sent in during the entire year will receive an elegant copy of one of the great classic poems with illustrations by Dore, and the portrait of the writer will be published, so that those who have read the poem may have the additional pleasure of seeing the face of the one who has contributed to their enjoyment.

Only poems that have never been published will be accepted.
