

ROGUE NEWS

Published by the Associated Students of the Ashland, Oregon, High School

NUMBER 4

ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL, ASHLAND, OREGON

FRI., JAN. 28, 1955

Greg Fury and Al Lorenz late for third period one. The reason given — they didn't get out of Alvin's car. It just goes to show what set door handles can be. Mr. Lewis appeared after session in some real passion-clothes he had received Christmas. There was a girl which was pink, and matching bow tie and socks pink and black. They were deleted gracefully in general assembly with a blue stut. Any of you missed the show ask Tom Swift to show his clever sketch. Here's a man in Donna Dunm's life. All anyone can out is that his name is Wil. Tell us more Donna. One of our younger teachers

Gentlemen Prefer Blondes— Jim Hall.
Hoy to Marry a Millionaire— Boreen Phillips.
Place in the Sun — Jerry Rodenmayer.
Athens — Lillian Stults.
Bottleground — Competition yells in Gym.
Battle Cry — Donna Dunken-son.
Prince of Peace — Richard Trites.
Neptunes Daughter — Linda Madison.
Little Boy Lost — Dan Hak-kes.
Song in My Heart — Evelyn Devis.
King Richard and the Crus-aders — Mr. Parks and teach-ers.
Ace in the Hole — Grizzly

LOIS MAY

A blessed event occurred January 12, 1937, in Ellens-burg, Washington, at the May house, for that was when Lois May made her first appearance in the world.

This senior girl has blond hair and hazel eyes, is secretary

Back Row, left to right: Donna Howell, Susan Weiler, Toby Fox, Lillian Stults, Pat Keene, Donna Dunkenson, and Jeanne Eberhart. Front row, left to right: Marlene Gardener, Beverly Hakes, Linda Madison, Connie Kimsey, Pat Brewer, Elaine Falwell, Sandy Anthous, Barbara Allen, and Barbara Johnson.

Flag Team Game Attraction

Ashland High's flag girls sixteen in all, have made three appearances during half-time at basketball games.

Their first appearance was at Crescent City. They did a walk routine to "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," as they twirled their red and white flags in various movements.

The girls then appeared at the Klamath Falls game and did a marching routine. They did only two different twirls and the rest was formations done by the girls.

Their latest appearance was

Ashland Boasts New Students

The freshmen and sophomore classes are the only classes in which new students have been enrolled since November, 1954.

Among the freshmen students are: Dorothy Main, who has moved to Ashland from Siletz, Oregon; Ronnie Brewer, from Happy Camp; Paul Briener and Vernon Grow, who have just enrolled in school for the first time this year; Walter and Judy Schneider, from Mission Bay High school in San Diego; and Peggy Ataway from Talent.

New sophomores in school are: Carol Johnson from Yreka, California; Kathie Guina from Yuma, Arizona; Joe Roberts, from Biddle, Oregon; and Alice Colley, from Medford.

With these new students, there are now 541 students in school: 107 Seniors, 124 Juniors, 152 Sophomores, and 158 Freshmen.

Happy Birthday

Best wishes and many happy returns of the day to the following students who have birthdays in January:

FRESHMEN

Tina Blankenship, 1; Barbara Stoddard, 7; Edith Edmonds 13; Jeanette Therres, 19; Margaret Hull, 20; Judith Mills, 21; Steve Morrill, 22; Dorothy Main, 22; Judy Bounds, 23.

SOPHOMORES

Maralyn Michael, 8. Tom Delesman, 18; Jeannie Hargis, 17; Richard Watson, 19; Tim

Continued on Page 2

Speech Cup Won By Richard Lamb

Ashland High debaters were represented by a foursome attending the debate tournament at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington, January 20 through 22.

The four debaters taking the trip were Richard Lamb and Larry Kerr, seniors, on one team and Bruce Graham and Jerry Miller juniors on the other team. The group was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Drew Lamb, Richard's parents.

Larry and Richard won five debates and lost one. Jerry and Bruce won four debates and lost two. Richard Lamb took second place in extemporaneous speech speaking, bringing a gold cup back to Ashland High.

The tournament at Gonzaga had debaters from the states of Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. It was the largest tournament AHS debaters had ever participated in.

Practice Meet Held
The other debaters had a preliminary tournament Saturday January 8 with Medford here at AHS. The main purpose of this meet was to give the debaters more experience. AHS debaters participating were: Jeanne Keenan, sophomore, and Lynn Erwin, senior; Tim Keating and Gregg Monroe, sophomores; Beverly Hakes and Barbara Johnson, sophomores and Nancee Bissell and Betty Sorenson, sophomores.

Tournament at SOC
January 28 and 29 there will be a non-competitive tournament held at SOC. The following students will be attending the tournament: Richard Lamb and Larry Kerr, seniors; Bruce Graham and Carol Beare, juniors; Nancee Bissell and Betty Sorenson, sophomores; Jeanne Keenan and Lynn Erwin, sophomore and senior; Tim Keating and Gregg Monroe, sophomores; Beverly Hakes and Barbara Johnson, sophomores; Janet Saltus, senior, will be entered in the poetry division.

Debaters have a big tournament at McMinnville in three weeks to work toward and prepare for.

Brewer and Lillian Stults doing specials.

The girls costumes are made of white corduroy and red cotton. They have short sleeves and a split skirt.

There are nine senior girls, three junior girls, two sophomore girls and two freshmen girls.

Home Ec. Test Taken by Girls
On Wednesday, January 12, the senior girls met in the library to take a homemaking test, sponsored by Betty Crocker in search of the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

This test was given to the girls for the purpose of selecting the girl with the most correct answers from each school in Oregon that participated in this test.

Home Ec. Test Taken by Girls

This girl will compete with the other girls in Oregon and the winner will then go on to the national test.

To the winner of the contest will go $3,500 as a national scholarship to the accredited college, university, or junior college of her choice; and a specially designed solid-gold diamond set, Betty Crocker All-American of Tomorrow award pin.

AHS's winner of this test has not yet been announced.

New adult education classes will start at the high school, Tuesday evening, February 1.

Classes to be offered will depend on the interest and registration. According to present plans the following courses will be offered: beginners practical typing, taught by Mrs. Mary Christlieb; metal shop, Mr. Clifton James; wood shop, Mr. John Schreiber; clothing, Mrs. Maxine Stephens; driver training, Mr. Gilbert Ellis; and shorthand, Miss Donna Sparling.

Any adult interested should call the high school, 8801, where information will be given and registration will be accepted.

All classes except shops are $4 for eight weeks and shops at $5 for the eight weeks. Twenty week classes are $8.

Honor Roll Students Headed by Seniors

Seniors topped the honor roll at the end of the third six weeks with 22 of their 108 members being listed. Juniors, sophomores and freshmen tied, each contributing 15 to the honor listing.

FACULTY SHOW COMING EVENT

Faculty assembly coming soon!

Tentative date is during the first week of February.

Actors and actresses for this annual affair include: Miss Sparling, Mr. Pierce, Mr. Price, Mr. Windt, and Mr. Parks as the Dixieland Five; Misses Lasher, Sparling, Jones and Germeroth as the Coedettes, Mr. Simpson as Jackie Simpson putting Jackie Gleason to shame and Mr. Geen as Mr. Baso Profundo. Several other actors and actresses will also appear.

This year the faculty assembly will also be put on for the P.T.A. on Thursday, January 27 at 8:00 p.m. in the library.

Adult Classes To Be Offered
New adult education classes will start at the high school, Tuesday evening, February 1.

Classes to be offered will depend on the interest and registration. According to present plans the following courses will be offered: beginners practical typing, taught by Mrs. Mary Christlieb; metal shop, Mr. Clifton James; wood shop, Mr. John Schreiber; clothing, Mrs. Maxine Stephens; driver training, Mr. Gilbert Ellis; and shorthand, Miss Donna Sparling.

Any adult interested should call the high school, 8801, where information will be given and registration will be accepted.

All classes except shops are $4 for eight weeks and shops at $5 for the eight weeks. Twenty week classes are $8.

Seniors: Nancy Bundoek, Dave Carter, Sherrill Clark, Mariys Elhart, Elaine Falwell, Greg Fury, Grace Hamilton, Barbara James, Dick Lamb, Heather MacDougall, Lois May, Jerry Mickle.

Juniors: Bob Alley, Barbara Baker, Sally Bullard, Sue Eudoy, Bruce Everett, Sharon Huck, June Hopkins, Dennis Lohman, Don McMurchie, Jerry Miller, Marjorie Osgood, Judy Schopf, Morton Scripser, Gary Watts and Alberta Wittae.

Sophomores: Marianna Fletcher, Sandra Gibbie, Mary Gayle Hodgins, Kathy Ingle, Julie Joy, Diane Lohman, Phyllis Mapes, Gregg Monroe.

Freshmen: Jim Sinks, Betty Sorenson, Harvey Sorenson, Vivian Steverson Lynn Susce, and Clarice Williams.

Officers were elected and are: Marjie Reed, senior, president; Lois May, senior, vice-president; and Phyllis Walker, senior, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of the club is to encourage more young people to enter the field of teaching and to find out more about the qualifications of teaching and of teaching itself.

Future Teachers of America club of Ashland high met for the first time, Wednesday, January 19. Mr. Robert Todd is the faculty advisor.

F.T.A. GROUP IS ORGANIZED

Future Teachers of America club of Ashland high met for the first time, Wednesday, January 19. Mr. Robert Todd is the faculty advisor.

Officers were elected and are: Marjie Reed, senior, president; Lois May, senior, vice-president; and Phyllis Walker, senior, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of the club is to encourage more young people to enter the field of teaching and to find out more about the qualifications of teaching and of teaching itself.

Coming Events
Calendar, January 21, to February 19.

Jan. 21, Friday, Basketball, Grants Pass at Ashland.

Jan. 22, Saturday, Basketball, Ashland at Grants Pass.

Jan. 25, Tuesday, Basketball, Crater High at Ashland.

Jan. 29, Saturday, Basketball, Ashland at Myrtle Creek.

Feb. 1, Tuesday, Basketball, Ashland at Roseburg.

Feb. 8, Tuesday, Basketball, Ashland at Crater High.

Feb. 11, 12, Fri and Sat, Basketball, Ashland at Klamath Falls.

Feb. 18, Friday, Basketball, Medford at Ashland.

Feb. 19, Saturday, Basketball, Ashland at Medford.

DON'T MISS ED SULLIVAN'S
"TOAST OF THE TOWN"
see
6 GUEST STARS
PLUS MANY OTHERS