 Accounts were filed in the estate of John H. Stanturf, deceased, this week and Saturday, June 12, was set for hearing by the court.
 Owen Thompson was in from his ranch today on business. He will leave next Monday for Eastern Oregon to buy a lot of horses.
 New and second-hand furniture, Samuel Goodman, Proprietor. Everything needed for the household. Call and give us a trial. 424 South Second St. 5-5-4t.

William Crees lost a toe nail Monday while harnessing up his horse. He didn't say anything, but his thoughts were similar to those of the Dutchman's boy.
 A. C. Miller, a prominent farmer of Kings Valley, came in yesterday with two five-year-old horses for the market. Jesse Wiley will have charge of them.
 L. H. Stone, of the Oregonian, is up from Portland preparing an industrial write up of Benton county, and of Corvallis in particular, for publication in that paper.

The Southern Pacific Railway has announced that the special excursion rates to the A. Y. P. E. at Seattle will be $11, good for a continuous trip and limited to 15 days.
 Miss Esther Purdy entertained about twenty of her friends Tuesday evening. A delicious luncheon was served and a most delightful evening passed, Miss Purdy proving to be a charming hostess.
 E. E. Hardesty, of Evansville, Ind., is in Corvallis, looking over this section with a view to locating here. He says that if he decides to remain he will bring out several families from his home city.
 C. S. Prather, who has been away for seven months, has returned from the Hood River country. He reports an anticipated short crop of fruit in that section, the late frosts having done some slight damage.

Mrs. J. H. Price, who had been in the North Pacific Sanitarium for the past month, returned home yesterday much improved in health. She is now rapidly recovering much to the gratification of her family and friends.
 The May Day supper and entertainment at the Congregational church was a most enjoyable and successful affair. Hundreds of people partook of the excellent refreshments and were delighted with the interesting program that followed the supper. The Ladies' Aid had charge of the event and they have been highly complimented over it.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Richardson, of Montrose, Colorado, are here visiting Mrs. Blanche Prather and family. They are out on a nine-months' tour with a view of finding a permanent location. Thus far they have visited New Mexico, Arizona and California, arriving in Corvallis Sunday, where they will spend the summer, investigating the surrounding country. Mrs. Richardson is a sister of Mrs. Prather and this is their first meeting in twenty-four years.

Mrs. T. J. Creighton, who has been ill, is now getting better.
 Sheriff Gellatly's mother arrived yesterday from Blodgett on a visit to her son.
 Thomas Whitehorn and son, Claude, have returned from a few days' fishing trip to Rock Creek.
 C. S. Jackson, the editor of the Portland Journal, addressed the student body of OAC at convocation today.
 Judge Woodward, of the Probate court, has ordered the estate of Martha Simpson to be closed and the administrator discharged.

Miss Pauline Kline and Mrs. Stephen Carver went out to the end of the C. & A. Railroad yesterday and enjoyed the ride on the new road very much.
 An inventory and appraisement has been filed in the estate of Sarah C. Bratton, the property consisting of 71 acres of land in Linn county and $923 in money.
 In the matter of the estate of John E. Johnson, deceased, the administrator, John H. Johnson, has filed his final account and the court has fixed Monday, June 7, as the time for hearing the same.

Missionary Meeting.
 The district convention of the Women's Home Missionary society of the M. E. Church is in session here today and will continue over until tomorrow. Delegates are here from all over the district and a most helpful meeting is being carried out. The State Organizer will make an address this evening at the M. E. church and a large attendance is expected.

Plenty of Autos.

Buzz wagons are becoming as common as buggies in these parts and their purchase by many of the townspeople and farmers is an evidence that money is plentiful. J. W. Ingle is one of the latest to get a machine and he is proud of his fine Reo car. Prof. John Fulton also has a new Reo. He bought the auto in Portland and drove it up here without having to crawl under the machine a single time. U. G. Berry, of Peoria, will soon have a car, too, Mark Rickard having gone to Portland to select one for him.
