TIGERS CAN MAKE QUALIFICATIONS

La Grande Has Man in Every Event Who Can Better Requirements

When the Pendleton-La Grande track and field meet is ended Saturday afternoon at Pendleton, local fans will begin to work out their dope sheets in an effort to figure out just what chance the Tigers have of winning the Eastern Oregon contest at Baker May 7.

Pendleton and Baker are figured as the strongest contenders although Milton-Freewater and Union are likely to enter strong teams. And there is always the possibility that Central Oregon will send a squad of men. As the Eastern Oregon meet has been staged in the past, any team this side of the Cascades is eligible to enter.

One thing is certain—La Grande has a flock of first place men all of whom are capable of bettering qualification marks required to enter the state meet at Corvallis May 14.

Tigers Eligible

State qualifications are as follows, compared with marks made by La Grande athletes in the Baker dual meet:

Event	State Qual.	Marks
100-yard	11" Emutz	10.6x
220-yard	25" Emutz	22.1
Low hurdles	26" Lyman	29.2
High hurdles	20" Lyman	18.5
440-yard	56" Emutz	55.6
Half mile	2:12' Dennis	2:05.4
Mile	5'	Anson 4:57.8
Shot	36'	Charleton 40'
Discus	95'	Keffer 112'2"
Javelin	140'	Price 141'9"
Vault	10'	Lyman 10'9"
Broad jump	18'	Vaught 20'6"
High jump	5'4"	Lyman 5'4"

xMade in class track meet.

In the state relay each of the four men will be required to run 220 yards, as is followed in the Eastern Oregon meet. Although no qualification is given for the state meet, a team should be able to run in at least 4:17 to have a chance.

Bob Smith, reformed infielder of the Boston Braves, broke his right hand staff everywhere but against Brooklyn hats yesterday in shutting out the Robins 3 to 0. He allowed Brooklyn two hits.

Ray Kremer gave Cincinnati a quartet of safe blows and to make Pittsburgs victory doubly certain clicked a home run over the left field fence with two aboard. That was all he had to do to get a 3-2 decision.

Alex Ferguson, right handed the Philadelphia Quakers into a 4-2 win over the Giants. Any more than four hits might have brought disaster to Alex what with five passes and Freddy Lindstrom's homer.

The Boston Red Sox in an engagement with Washington "took one on the chin" 7 to 4. Murray and Braxton, Senator youngsters doled out four hits, two apiece.

The Yankees clouted the Philadelphia Athletics again, 12 to 6.

St. Louis-Detroit and Chicago-Cleveland games were rained out in the American sector and Chicago found it too cold to play the St. Louis Cardinals.

COOLIDGE BEST DRESSED

PHILADELPHIA—Mr. Coolidge is the best dressed man in the United States in the opinion of Sir Charles Higman, British advertising expert. The president is one of the few Americans Sir Charles has noted with shoes shined. And far from being a "dumbbell," Sir Charles found that the president talked in vivacious, intelligent fashion on half a dozen subjects.

O.-W. Team Seeks Games; Hopes To Organize League

Organization of a Union Pacific baseball team here has been completed, it is announced by W. H. Perry, and arrangements are being made to line up some games with out-of-town nines.

Mr. Perry declares that the team is eager to join in the formation of a branchline league and hopes to be able to get a four or six-team circuit started, including Elgin, Wallowa, Enterprise, Joseph or other nearby towns.

MALKETTA, O. — Long before Byron Bancroft Johnson, lately retired president of the American League, became interested in professional baseball, he played the game so well at Marietta, Ohio, college that the school paper suggested organization of a team around him.

HAGEN WILL TRAIN BY PLAYING BASEBALL

PINEHURST, N. C., Apr. 22 (AP) — Playing baseball to get into condition for golf tournaments may sound odd even in these modern days when diamond stars include the Scottish game as a part of their training camp routine, but this is exactly what Walter Hagen says he will do.

Hagen, who has temporarily dropped golf because of a bad foot, believes the baseball workouts will help him get back into condition for the Ryder Cup matches, at Worcester, Mass, when he will captain the American team of professionals.

One fellow golfer remarked the practice of running after hitting the ball would result in some colorful golf should Hagen forget when he returns to tournament play.

Interclub Match Lures Golfers To Baker Links

Fifteen or 20 golf players of La Grande will go to Baker Sunday, where they will take part in an interclub match with the Baker Country club on the Baker golf course.

The invitation from the Baker club was received here more than a week ago, and several are planning to make the trip. It is reported that the golf course there is in good condition.

This interclub match will be the second for La Grande players this spring. Early in the season they accepted an invitation from the Pendleton Golf club to play there, about 20 from here making the trip.

NEW YORK — Why Edith Wynne Matthison has beauty of speech:

"I lay this honor at the feet of my mother whose beautiful Welsh voice sang into my ears as a child; and second, at the feet of my father, who taught me to read my first poem, a Shakespeare sonnet, at the age of seven." The actress explained when presented with the gold medal of the American Academy of Arts and Letters for the best diction on the stage.
