Women Save Many Needless Steps By Improvements of The Kitchens

Studies have revealed that farm women walk unnecessary miles each day in the preparation of meals because of inconvenient location of equipment. Water supply is one of their greatest troubles.

To meet the need for kitchen improvement, home demonstration agents, cooperatively employed by the department of agriculture and state agricultural colleges, have included kitchen improvement work in their extension programs.

Nationwide interest has been aroused in these contests. Some of the earlier work was done in Virginia in 1921, when women in three counties participated in such contests. The work now is being carried on in some form in practically every state.

Kitchens are visited usually by a member of the state extension service, who brings a score card commenting the essentials of a well-planned kitchen. The housewife and the specialist compare the lighting, arrangement of equipment and other features of the kitchen to be improved with the standard set in the score card and talk over the situation.

Winners are determined by the score card method, and frequently local merchants interest themselves to the extent of offering prizes for the greatest improvement over the original kitchen arrangement, the greatest improvement made with the best expenditure and the most ingenious methods used in solving difficulties.

OREGON HOPS TO YIELD HEAVILY

Butter Market in Healthy Condition—Eggs Are Steady in Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., May 23 (AP)—A large yield of Oregon hops is looked for since growing conditions have been near ideal and plantations show good progress. Contracts are fairly active, several lots being signed the past week for from 19 to 20c, with several Yakima contracts at from 19 to 19½c. Spots are moving moderately at 22c.

With good outlets for shipments to Los Angeles and Seattle and extra quantities being cared for through local storage, the butter market is held to be in a pretty healthy condition here.

The egg market opened steady this morning with Saturday's prices when 297 cases had been stored for the day.

This morning's early trade in fresh country dressed meats and poultry was about steady with Saturday's close. Good offerings of veal Saturday went for from 15 to 17½c while pork cleaned up well at around 15c. Heavy hens are bringing from 24 to 25c, lights 19 to 20c and springs are steady at from 18 to 19c.

OTTUMWA, Ia., May 23 (AP)—Chicago, Burlington and Quincy train No. 9, bound from Chicago to Denver, was wrecked near Dudley, Ia., today. A heavy rain which softened the tracks was said to have caused the accident in which the engine and five cars were reported derailed. Reports said no one was seriously injured.

Portland Editor Wins Test Case

PORTLAND, Ore., May 23 (AP)—Fred L. Baxll, editor of the Portland News, won a test case in which he had himself arrested recently, when four circuit judges sitting en banc today decided that municipal judges of Portland are without authority to act as justices of the peace or committing magistrates under state laws. The ruling was made in habeas corpus proceedings filed by Baxll who was arrested and fined $10 recently in municipal court for having only one license plate on his automobile.

The decision, rendered by Circuit Judges Evans, Skipworth, Tucker and Hewitt, does not affect the right of municipal judges to sit in cases involving city ordinances, but leaves them without authority to act in state cases.

Robert T. Small Is Dead in Washington

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Robert T. Small, known by his writing to newspaper readers in many states, is dead at the age of 49. Death was caused by heart disease while he slept at his hotel.

As superintendent of the southern division of The Associated Press and as a writer for the Consolidated Press association, the Washington Post, the Washington Star and Philadelphia Public Ledger Small was looked upon as a reporter of unusual versatility, covering during his many years of service subjects ranging from baseball to battlefields, horse racing to politics.

Banks, Ore., Man Dies of Burns

PENDLETON, May 23 (AP)—Eldon Bledsoe, 26, farm hand of the Holdman area, who was severely burned in an early-morning fire at the C. H. Bannister ranch Saturday, died here Sunday at noon. His condition was critical following the fire, his body being burned from the waist up. His home was in Banks, Oregon.

Fokker Fails To Rise In Test At Roosevelt Field

ROOSEVELT FIELD, New York May 23 (AP)—The Fokker triple motored plane, America, in which Lieut. Commander Richard E. Byrd may attempt a duplication of Lindbergh's New York to Paris flight, failed to rise from the ground today in a load test.

Carrying 12,600 pounds, 900 pounds less than the load it would have at the final hop off, the monoplane was started down the runway where Lindbergh began his now famous flight. After traversing half the runway the engines were shut off. The plane had not lifted itself from the ground.

Bert Acosta and George Noville, who were making the test, said there was nothing wrong with the motors, but that a bearing of a landing gear wheel had frozen. This, it was explained, meant that the bearing, having become over heated, had swelled and jammed. The plane was returned to the hangar. The plane had previously lifted 12,250 pounds, mechanics said.

Grover Whalen, representing Rodman Wanamaker, backer of the flight, said that there was no intention of abandoning the New York-Paris flight.

CHARLIE SMILED AND COURT SOLEMNITY FLEW THE COOP

Those Chaplin feet and that Chaplin smile gave judicial dignity a tough time in the New York federal court when Charlie testified in the $750,000 alleged plagiarism suit brought against him by Leo Lochi. How his smile broke forth is shown (from top to bottom) in these pictures as he appeared on the witness stand. (NEA, New York Bureau)

Speculation For Advance Gaining Momentum Today

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Speculation for the advance gained momentum in today's stock market when a heavy buying movement developed in some of the so-called "merger rails" but the rally was slowed up after mid-day.

Early gains ran from 1 to 7 points, the rapidity of the rise in many issues testifying to the scarcity in the floating supply. Pennsylvania railroad common moved up to 62¾, the highest price since 1913.

More than a score other issues broke through to new peak prices since 1925, or longer, the list including Bangor and Aroostook, Rock Island common, Pere Marquette, International Harvester, Air Reduction, Reynolds Tobacco "B," Brooklyn Union Gas, American Sugar Refining, A. M. Byers, Worthington Pump, Lambert, Simmons and International Nickel.

The closing was strong. Pittsburg and West Virginia rallied from an early low of 15¾ to 16⅝, a new record price. Mack Truck went close to 219, the year's best, and the demand for International Nickel carried it above 36.

Total sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

Wheat Gains And Close Is Strong

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—Opening at ⅛c off to ⅛c up, wheat later showed decided gains all around. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, corn starting at ¼ to ½c advance but subsequently receding to below Saturday's finish.

Wheat closed strong, 1⅝ to 2⅝c net higher, corn ⅝ to ¾c up, oats at ¼ to ⅝c gain and provisions showing 10 to 22c decline.

Striking Students Return to School

NEWBERG, Ore., May 23 (AP)—Striking high school students who remained out Friday in protest against suspension of 26 seniors for cutting classes on "Kid day," were back at school today while the faculty was considering the matter of penalty. It was indicated that the strikers would be dealt with lightly, possibly being required only to make up lost time. At a mass meeting Saturday sentiment was expressed that the faculty had dealt too harshly with the seniors. The faculty expected to reach a settlement at to the seniors and the striking classmen at a conference late today.

BLIMP WRECKED AT SCOTT FIELD

Army Non-Rigid Airship Damaged as It Leaves Hanger in Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 23 (AP)—The army non-rigid airship TC-10-243, was wrecked here today as it was leaving its hangar to return to Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., about 2 o'clock.

Reports from Brooks field said the big blimp was just taking to the air when a control wire fouled the frame work of one of the lofty doors. The wire was torn loose, stripping away the altitude rudder and the balloon after rising rapidly for a moment, nosed into the earth.

Authorities refused to issue an official report of the accident but indicated no one had been injured. The wreck occurred at the same spot on which the C-2 was wrecked several years ago when it suddenly broke away from its attendants and exploded. The TC-10-243, however, is filled with helium and not subject to explosion.

Construction To Begin At Bend

BEND, Ore., May 23 (AP)—Five large construction camps are to be established between Bend and Paunina in connection with building the Oregon Trunk's extension, which is to reach Klamath Falls, it is reported here. The week opened with continuation of activity uncorked last week when announcement was made of the Oregon Trunk's intention to start work.

Visible evidence here is presence of several cars of railroad equipment, arrival of parties of laborers, work of surveyors who have staked off the new line from the Oregon Trunk terminus here.

Except for some blasting where the road will cross lava flows, the grading of the new line will present little difficulty.

Thrift Is Always Commendable

A great deal of rather foolish advertising is being published in some of our so-called "high class" magazines to the effect that women of refinement use only perfumes at $24 an ounce, or wear only the filmiest of expensive silks near their skins.

Nonsense! The styles in perfumes and silks arrive, pass and are forgotten, but the standards of true refinement defy the passing of the years. A race, a nation or an individual's standards of culture are judged now, as always, by their consideration for the rights of others. This is the bedrock upon which all social forms are built.

The J. C. Penney Company number among their customers many women of wealth and undisputed social standing. It is interesting to note that these women are unusually appreciative of the sound values we offer, and are always first to practice thrift and sensible economy in the management of their households.
