News of the Churches

First of Summer Union Services Will Be Sunday

Two Meetings Will Be Held; The Rev. Oliver Riley and the Rev. L. H. Ayers to Speak.

The first of the series of union church services to be held in La Grande during July and August, under the direction of the ministerial association, will take place Sunday evening, on the south side. If the size the services will be held in the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. Oliver Riley as speaker and the Rev. Oliver Riley will speak at the Methodist Episcopal church south. Sunday, July 24, St. Peter's Episcopal will be the meeting place on the south side with the Rev. J. George Walz as speaker and Rev. L. W. Parker will be the speaker on the north side. Sunday, July 31, the Rev. H. W. Parker will speak at the Lutheran church and the Rev. J. George Walz will be the speaker on the Methodist Episcopal church south. Sunday, Aug. 7, the Rev. H. A. Hall will speak at the First Baptist church and the Rev. M. L. Bonner will speak at the south side meeting.

The Rev. M. L. Bonner will be the speaker at the first meeting at Riverside park, Sunday, Aug. 14. The Rev. J. L. Hall will be the speaker Aug. 21, and the Rev. Oliver Riley will speak at the last union service of the series, Aug. 28.

An offering will be taken at each service to defray the expense of the meetings, members of the committee announce.

First Presbyterian Church

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning the 11 o'clock hour will be devoted to the reception of new members, a sermon to the new, on the subject "A Church Remembrance," a baptism and the Holy and Divine, holy communion and the reading of a communication from Dr. Robert E. Speer, moderator of the general assembly.

The senior Christian Endeavor society will meet at 6:30 o'clock. The Sunday Bible school meets at 9:45 in the morning.

English Lutheran Church

"The Second Mile" will be the subject on which the Rev. Carl H. Lowe, pastor of the English Lutheran church, will preach Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock worship hour. The Sunday school assembles at 9:45 o'clock.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Holy communion at 8 o'clock will mark the first worship Sunday in St. Peter's Episcopal church. Church school will follow at 9:45 o'clock. "Consecration" will be the subject of the pastor's sermon at 11 o'clock.

Nazarene Church

Professor V. V. Myers, of the Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa, Ida., will have charge of the services Sunday at the Nazarene church, corner of J avenue and Birch street. The Rev. S. E. Sumner, district superintendent, will be in the city tomorrow and will preach at that time.

The Rev. Connie Corbett, evangelist, will begin a series of meetings here Sunday evening, July 24, under the auspices of the Nazarene Young People's society. The Rev. Mr. Corbett has had considerable similar meetings at Baker and Enterprise in which he was very successful. He will be assisted by Professor Myers who will bring special numbers in song and music throughout the service.

The service meetings will continue for two weeks. A special invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Christian Church

The Rev. E. A. Dunn, pastor of the First Christian church of Walla Walla, will be the speaker at the First Christian church here Sunday morning and evening. The local church has been without a minister since the resignation of the Rev. C. C. Dunn a few weeks ago.

During the morning worship hour at 11 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Dunn will use as his subject, "Where Is Jesus Now and What Is He Doing." In the evening at 8 o'clock his subject will be "Talking of Lazarus."

First M. E. Church

Church school will meet at 9:45 o'clock in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Public worship at 11 o'clock. The pastor will speak on "Days and the Road Ruts Lessons." There will be special music.

The members of the Epworth League are called to meet at 7 o'clock to discuss plans relative to the institute to be held at Walla Walla next week.

There will be no evening service, the congregation of the church will join in the union services at the First Presbyterian church.

Island City Community Church

At the Island City Community church the pastor, the Rev. Hall K. Wallis, will bring the morning message at 11 o'clock, the subject being "Fools and Brothers." The church school will meet at 10 o'clock.

"Tomorrow Song of Praise" will be the subject for the Young People's meeting at 7 o'clock in the evening. Miss Hilda Hallmark will be the leader.

East Side M. E. Church

Sunday school opens at 9:45 o'clock in the East Side Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, the Rev. J. A. Hall, will preach at 11 o'clock on the subject "The Child Be Constituted."

The intermediate league will meet at 6 o'clock and the senior league at 7.

One of the joint union services will be held in the evening at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Earl H. Lowe as the speaker. "Perfect Peace" will be his subject. Lowe, pastor of the local church, will preach Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock worship hour. The Sunday school assembles at 9:45 o'clock.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Holy communion at 8 o'clock will mark the first worship Sunday in St. Peter's Episcopal church. Church school will follow at 9:45 o'clock. "Consecration" will be the subject of the pastor's sermon at 11 o'clock.

Nazarene Church

Professor V. V. Myers, of the Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa, Ida., will have charge of the services Sunday at the Nazarene church, corner of J avenue and Birch street. The Rev. S. E. Sumner, district superintendent, will be in the city tomorrow and will preach at that time.

The Rev. Connie Corbett, evangelist, will begin a series of meetings here Sunday evening, July 24, under the auspices of the Nazarene Young People's society. The Rev. Mr. Corbett has had considerable similar meetings at Baker and Enterprise in which he was very successful. He will be assisted by Professor Myers who will bring special numbers in song and music throughout the service.

The service meetings will continue for two weeks. A special invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Christian Church

The Rev. E. A. Dunn, pastor of the First Christian church of Walla Walla, will be the speaker at the First Christian church here Sunday morning and evening. The local church has been without a minister since the resignation of the Rev. C. C. Dunn a few weeks ago.

During the morning worship hour at 11 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Dunn will use as his subject, "Where Is Jesus Now and What Is He Doing." In the evening at 8 o'clock his subject will be "Talking of Lazarus."

First M. E. Church

Church school will meet at 9:45 o'clock in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Public worship at 11 o'clock. The pastor will speak on "Days and the Road Ruts Lessons." There will be special music.

The members of the Epworth League are called to meet at 7 o'clock to discuss plans relative to the institute to be held at Walla Walla next week.

There will be no evening service, the congregation of the church will join in the union services at the First Presbyterian church.

Island City Community Church

At the Island City Community church the pastor, the Rev. Hall K. Wallis, will bring the morning message at 11 o'clock, the subject being "Fools and Brothers." The church school will meet at 10 o'clock.

"Tomorrow Song of Praise" will be the subject for the Young People's meeting at 7 o'clock in the evening. Miss Hilda Hallmark will be the leader.

East Side M. E. Church

Sunday school opens at 9:45 o'clock in the East Side Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, the Rev. J. A. Hall, will preach at 11 o'clock on the subject "The Child Be Constituted."

The intermediate league will meet at 6 o'clock and the senior league at 7.

One of the joint union services will be held in the evening at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Earl H. Lowe as the speaker. "Perfect Peace" will be his subject. Lowe, pastor of the English Lutheran