GRAPES CHEAPER; LETTUCE CLIMBS

Peaches Continue Plentiful—Butter Firm and Eggs Steady

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 9 (AP)—The supply of Thompson seedless grapes has increased enough to lower the price down to $1.75 per crate, 36 pounds net, wholesale. At retail they are 7c per pound.

A scarcity has developed for local letter lettuce, lifting the wholesale price up to $1.15 per crate for choice 1-dozen.

Peaches continue plentiful with Elbertas selling for $1.60@1.85 per box and retailing at 2c cents per dozen and 40c for best large size.

Local buyers are paying 44 cents $1 per box and consumers 15@20 cents at the per pound on the public market.

Other wholesale prices this morning: Apples, $1.75@$2.25 for four-basket crates and packing onions, 1c per pound; green peppers, 15 to 20c; best Burbank potatoes, bags, $2 to $2.25 per cwt.

Country dressed fowls and poultry were firm this morning, but receipts were light and prices for best 3@4 year old were expected to strengthen a little during the day.

The cold butter market is very firm with production now below demand. The dairy exchange quotes extra cubes and standards both up ½c to 41½c and 41c respectively.

Wholesale egg prices remain steady throughout with trade demand good and a small storage movement.

Stock Exchange Shows Strength; Dozen Issues Up

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 (AP)—Impressive recoveries in prices took place in today's stock market, indicating that the corrective reaction under way since last Saturday had been completed. Pools marked up more than a dozen issues to new high levels.

Bethlehem Steel was again a leader in the industrial section, crossing 61 to the highest price since 1922. Renewed strength and activity in General Motors was associated with prospects of special dividend action and a possible stock split up at Thursday's meeting of the board of directors.

The closing was strong. Having succeeded in turning the market upward, the "bulls" pressed their advantage vigorously in the last hour when a number of representative issues rallied 3 to 6 points extra approximately 1,600,000 shares.

Orderly Market Considered By State Stockmen

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 9 (AP)—Expedients to bring about an orderly movement of livestock to stock yards and prevent slumps in the market were considered today at a conference here by William Stewart, of Baker, president of the Oregon Cattle and Horse Breeders' association; H. J. Arnett, secretary of the advisory board of the American Railway association and R. H. Kipp, manager of the marketing department of the Portland chamber of commerce.

The conclusions announced were that stockmen must either maintain their own orderly marketing director at the Union stock yards, or suffer losses from shipments under disorganized conditions.

The officials decided that it would pay the stockmen to agree to an assessment of 10c a head on livestock shipped to stockyards rather than stand present losses.

Wheat Declines After Flurry In Winnipeg Market

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 9 (AP)—Wheat declined on the Winnipeg exchange from 1⅞ to 2⅜c in the first hour of trading this morning, influenced by more favorable reports on crop conditions.

Reports received today indicated that no frosts occurred in Saskatchewan or Manitoba last night, despite predictions of cooler weather and warm sunshine is promised by the weather man for tomorrow.

Reports of frost yesterday morning in Saskatchewan sent to Winnipeg and Chicago grain exchanges which caused a great flurry in those markets, apparently were greatly exaggerated. Frost damage to grain crops is unestimated as yet, but it is believed to have been negligible. Tender garden stuff of a few points suffered some damage.

Wheat Unsettled And Some Lower

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 (AP)—Opening at ⅝c decline to ⅝c advance, wheat later showed a moderate general drop, but also displayed power to rally. Corn, oats and provisions were relatively firm, corn starting ⅛c off to 1⅛c up, and subsequently holding near to yesterday's finish.

Wheat closed unsettled, ⅞ to ⅞c net lower; corn unchanged to ⅛c off; oats ⅜ to ⅝c up, and provisions varying from 5c decline to a rise of 27c.

Cotton Futures In Mad Scramble

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 (AP)—Cotton futures, which advanced $10 a bale yesterday on publication of an unexpectedly low government crop estimate, jumped $5 more a bale today in a mad scramble for the commodity by the cotton trade and bear traders. The March option opened at 20.10 to 20.45 cents a pound.

LENA'S DOWER IS $1,000,000

On the eve of her wedding to James (Bud) Stillman Jr., son of the New York millionaire and society man, Lena Wilson, "Queen of the North Woods," was given a bridal present of $1,000,000, according to dispatches from Grand Mere, Quebec. Mrs. Stillman was a servant in the Grande Anse camp of Bud's mother, Fifi Porter Stillman. Here is the bride in her wedding gown.

READ THIS, EVEN THOUGH YOU DO NOT WANT TO READ IT

It looks like I'll have to throw up both of my hands and surrender my swimming hole proposition. The thought of keeping a swimming pool open on Sunday is more than I can stand. I will confess that I am very short-sighted and that when I think of something that looks good to me, I start right out after it just like an old hound hound after a jack-rabbit. And when I saw what I thought looked like a wonderful site for a swimming pool in the city of La Grande I just forgot all about this "No Sunday Business" and I began to jump and grab. I am sorta like the fellow who climbed up a tree to catch a wildcat. He caught the wildcat alright and his partner on the ground called up to him and said, "Do you want me to help you hold onto that wildcat?" "No," the fellow said, "I want you to help me turn the wildcat loose."

Nearly everybody tells me that I could not run a swimming pool on the "No Sunday Business" plan and I guess they are about nine-tenths right. I hate to start in on something that I can't finish. We hereby relinquish all of our rights to anyone else who wants to put in a first-class swimming pool in La Grande. I am just as sorry as you are but what can I do? If my mother was still alive and would come and find me running a swimming pool on Sunday I would be in turn for a good spanking. After writing all of this I have got that old boyhood feeling that I would like to paddle around in a swimming hole just as much as ever.

We have another car of Star-A-Star shingles due here in a few days.

Westinghouse Calls--

Every user of a Westinghouse Electric Range knows what Westinghouse service means.

Twice each year since electric cookery became the modern way, a representative of Westinghouse has come into the territory of our company—held cooking classes and visited range users seeing that all were satisfied.

Our service does not end with the sale of a range, but in co-operation with the Westinghouse Company continues throughout.

For six weeks a Westinghouse economist has been available to work with you on your cooking problem.
