KENNEDY QUITS HIS POST WITH NORTON-LILLY CO.

C. D. Kennedy has resigned as general agent of the Norton-Lilly company at Portland, handling the Isthmian steamships. Kennedy's service with the company will terminate August 1, when Lilly, vice president, and Edwards, general coast agent at San Francisco, will arrive in Portland to relieve Kennedy. No information has been given as to who will succeed the local agent.

While not officially announced, Kennedy will cast his lot with the Oregon & Ocean company, stevedores, liners and general agents. The new corporation will be composed of Captain W. Z. Haskins, E. E. Johnson and C. D. Kennedy. Haskins has been with the Oregon & Ocean since the incorporation and is an old timer in the stevedoring game.

E. E. Johnson has been traffic manager for the Pacific Steamship company in the Orient and recently has been acting agent for the Admiral line at Portland, succeeding the late Frank J. O'Connor. Johnson resigned from the Pacific Steamship company's service and until the first of the month the local affairs are being cared for by M. J. Wright of the Seattle office.

C. D. Kennedy of the Norton-Lilly company is one of the best known steamship men on the coast. For many years prior to the war he was engaged with the American-Hawiian company and with the formation of the shipping board was placed in charge of the local office of the division of operations.

RUSSIA ORDERED TO FREE YANKS

Washington, July 27.—(I. N. S.)—The United States has made new demands upon soviet Russia for the immediate release of American citizens who are now held prisoners in Russia, it was learned at the state department today.

The note of this government voicing the demands has been dispatched to the American consular agent at Reval to be handed to the soviet representative there for communication to his government.

This is understood to be the first direct demand made upon soviet Russia by this government for the release of the Americans, previous overtures having been carried on through neutral agencies.

The communication is understood to contain a stern warning to Russia that the soviet authorities can hold no hope for any American aid for the people of Russia who are reported to be suffering from starvation and disease, while American citizens are being held in prison under soviet orders.

There are now about eight Americans who are in jail in Russia and approximately 100 more who are being detained by the soviet authorities, although they are not actually imprisoned.

The action of this government is understood to have followed receipt of a letter from one of the American prisoners in Russia relating to the horrible conditions under which the prisoners are being held and making a dramatic appeal for stern measures by this nation to secure the liberty of the American prisoners.

In the meantime the order for the sending of a division of French troops to Upper Silesia has been cancelled.
