EGGS UP A CENT; APPLES ACTIVE

Most Lines of Fresh Fruit and Vegetables Moving More Briskly

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11 (AP)—Though top grades of wholesale butter and eggs are unchanged on the dairy exchange listings for today's trade, gains were made by undergrades.

Medium and undergrade eggs are up a cent each to 36 and 32c per dozen, respectively. In the butter division, prime firsts cubes are advanced ½c to 43c per pound.

Both butter and egg trading continue on very firm basis with storage holdings still on the decrease.

Country dressed meats and poultry were generally active at steady prices. Hogs and veal were quoted at yesterday's sharp declines but reserve supplies were apparently gradually cleaning up, and no further weakening of the market was expected.

Most lines of fresh fruits and vegetables were moving more briskly than usual in today's early trade. Prices were holding generally firm throughout.

Commercial packs of fall apples are beginning to move into the market in steady quantities. Combination pack Jonathans from Hoodsburg, averaging 200s, were taken readily at $1.60 per box. Red Spitzenberg apples, combination pack, moved well at the same price.

Hold-over supplies of Yakima Elberta peaches sold occasionally in Spokane lots at $1 to $1.25 per box for fruit in fairly good preservation.

THREATEN'S GIRL'S LIFE

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 11 (AP)—Because the girl with whom he had been keeping company refused to marry him, Archie Damon, of Elkton, threatened to kill her so that she could marry no one else, District Attorney Cordon stated today that he was informed by the girl's parents. A warrant was issued for Damon's arrest and he was taken into custody this morning. Damon, after threatening the girl's life, the district attorney says, he was informed, traded his rifle for a pistol and made the statement that he would see that the girl would marry no one else. Officers are investigating the case today while Damon is held in jail.

Flynn started from New York with but one cent in money, and is permitted to accept automobile rides but not to ask for them.

OREGON DEFICIT NOW $685,367.79

Statement Issued by State Treasurer's Department Today

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 11 (AP)—The state deficit, which on October 1 was $373,662.74, had on Oct. 8 increased to $685,367.79, according to a statement from the state treasurer's office today.

Disbursements from Oct. 1 to 8 were $463,279.23 and motor transportation funds subject to transfer were $66,472.28. These figures added to the $373,622.74 deficit of Oct. 1 makes $903,414.25.

Receipts from Oct. 1 to 8 were $143,062.40. This figure plus unreceipted items, namely, $38,270.32 inheritance taxes, $34,4447.96 corporation taxes and $2,265.88 miscellaneous items made a total of $218,046.56 to check against the $903,414.24, leaving the deficit at $685,367.69. The offset the deficit the state treasurer under the Hare bill of 1927, borrowed $200,000 at five per cent interest from Portland banks on Oct. 3 and transferred $500,000 at two per cent interest from the war veterans state aid sinking fund to the state general fund on Oct. 10.

These loans do not violate the constitutional provision against the states incurring an indebtedness of over $50,000 for two reasons. One is that tax receipts in process of collection are figured as state assets and the other is that the constitutional inhibition does not apply to loans from the general state expenses. This is supported by supreme court opinions.

General Course Of Prices Turn To Higher Level

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Operators working for higher prices regained control of the price movement in today's stock market after an early period of irregularity. A few new weak spots were uncovered by bear traders but heavy buying of U. S. Steel common and General Motors finally turned the general course of prices upward. U. S. Steel common rallied from a low of 143⅝ to 145½ and there was a brisk demand for Colorado Fuel, Vanadium and Crucible.

Resumption of the advance on General Motors coincided with the return to this country of William C. Durant, who has been actively identified with "bull" operations in that issue during the past few years. The delay in the introduction of the new Ford models also was a factor.

Houston Oil made up its early 5-point decline and bullish operations were resumed in Freeport Texas and A. M. Byers.

Rails offered stubborn resistance to selling pressure and by early afternoon were creeping forward under the leadership of the high grade investment shares.

The closing was steady. Total sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

Police Chief on Trial in Liquor Case in Medford

MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 11 (AP)—The federal jury hearing the trial of Herbert Baldwin, chief of police of Chiloquin, Klamath county, and Eli Gill, a cook, retired for deliberations at noon. The pair are charged with possession and sale of liquor. H. Songer, of Chiloquin, a jeweler, and former councilman, entered a plea of guilty to the same charge.

It was alleged by the government that Chief of Police Baldwin told two under-cover agents, and Gill, they could find moonshine liquor in the office of the justice of the peace, and that Gill made two unsuccessful attempts to enter. It was further alleged that while Gill was endeavoring to force an entry, Chief Baldwin accommodatingly went to the other end of town.

Court Injunction Perfected Today

PITTSBURG, Oct. 11 (AP)—The sweeping federal court injunction against the United States Mine Workers, its officials and members were perfected today when Judge F. P. Schoonmaker signed the decree entered by the Pittsburg Terminal Coal corporation. The injunction was termed by industrial leaders one of the most sweeping in the history of labor disputes.

The injunction, a preliminary one, covered practically every complaint entered by the corporation against the union and restrained even picketing near its non-union mines.

SUES FOR BASEBALL INJURY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11 (AP)—Whether a spectator can recover damages for being hit by a baseball is the question involved in a suit on trial here today. George Curtis, suing the Portland baseball club for $5,000 damages and $739 doctor bills alleged he was hit on the nose at the ball park here May 30, 1925 while sitting in an unprotected part of the grand stand. The ball club contended that persons sit in exposed seats at their own risk.
