Success of David Harum.

The three hundred and tenth thousand of David Harum is now on press, and the vitality of this phenomenal book is shown by the fact that on one day in the first week of October the orders amounted to over four thousand copies. It is also of interest to note one significant fact regarding the sales, which is that the actual records show an increase. The average sale of David Harum for every business day in August was thirteen hundred and six copies, while the average rate in September was fifteen hundred and twenty-one copies. It is of course obvious that no book of recent years has approached the record already made by David Harum and the future, judging from the present sales, promises even more remarkable results.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE of Oregon, for the County of Wasco.

Charles G. L. Benson, plaintiff,
vs
Hettie A. Benson, defendent.

To Hettie A. Benson, the above named defendant:

In the Name of the State of Oregon:

You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint in the above entitled court and cause on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this notice, to-wit: the 6th day of September, 1899, and if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint herein, to wit: that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved forever and that plaintiff have judgment against defendant for his costs and disbursements and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.

This summons is published by virtue of an order made and signed by Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of the above entitled court, on the 2d day of September, 1899, directing that said summons be published once a week for a period of not less than six consecutive weeks.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE of Oregon, for the county of Wasco.

Harriet A. Simon, Plaintiff,
vs.
William H. H. Simon, defendant.

To William H. H. Simon, the above named defendant:

In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified to be and appear in the above entitled court on or before the last day of the publication of this summons, towit: On or before Saturday, the 18th day of November, 1899, then and there to answer the complaint of the above named plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled suit; and if you so fail to appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof plaintiff will apply to said court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: For a decree of the above entitled court forever dissolving and annulling the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for an absolute decree of divorce from you, the said defendant.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, judge of the above entitled court, which order bears date of the 2nd day of October, 1899, and directs that said summons be served upon the said defendant by publication thereof for six consecutive weeks in The Dalles CHRONICLE, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published in The Dalles, Wasco county, Oregon; said publication to begin on the 7th day of October, 1899, and end on the 18th day of November, 1899.

Admiral George Dewey

Will receive the most royal welcome on Oct. 1st next, that was ever accorded to an American citizen.

You will find a complete biography of this great hero, including his brilliant victory over the Spanish fleet in the great, authoritative and up-to-date work of reference, the

New Werner Edition of the Encyclopædia Britannica

This is the only encyclopædia on the market that mentions Admiral Dewey. It gives the date of his birth; how he spent his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 27th he left Hong Kong with his squadron, found and destroyed the Spanish Fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Admiral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Admiral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and huntsman, and socially a good club man and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey.

Governor Theodore Roosevelt
Admiral Schley
Admiral Sampson
Capt. Clark of the Oregon and scores of other noted personages not even mentioned in any other Encyclopædia receive the same attention in this edition of the

Encyclopædia Britannica

It speaks of General Wood as Governor of Santiago; of General Henry as Governor-General of Porto Rico; of Aguinaldo's declaration of War against the U. S.
