STOCKS EFFECT LITTLE CHANGE

Market Extremely Dull--Speculative Issues Are Lifted Slightly

NEW YORK, July 20.—Trading in stocks today scarcely warranted extended description, transactions just about totalling 140,000 shares. Of this meager turnover specialties under professional direction contributed more than their usual proportion.

Such speculative issues as Sumatra Tobacco and Industrial Alcohol were lifted three to four points, Tobacco Products and Distillers Securities one to one and a half and local tractions about a point each. United States Steel rose the better part of a point at one, but surrendered all its advaneages at the end. Other steels were egally irregular and coppers, motors and oils were only occasionally quoted. Rails were again ignored, except for the moderate strength and activity of such widely divergent issues as New Haven and Atlantic Coast Line and Pacific Mail was the only member of the shipping group to display animation at an advance of one and a half points.

The day's news was of the customary week end character, including the more conservative reviews of the mercantile agencies which stressed the dominancy of "war business."

Noteworthy changes in the bank statement included a decrease of $178,000,000 in actual loans and discounts, which offset by almost threefold the preceding week's increase, and a further expansion of about $18,000,000 in actual reserves.

Bonds were steady on a minimum of operations. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,735,000.

United States bonds, old issues, were unchanged on call for the week.

PRICES LOWER WITH RAPIDITY

Corn Shoots Downward With Drastic Liquidation—Close Is Nervous

CHICAGO, July 20.—Drastic liquidation sent the corn market down again today until prices were off about 15 cents a bushel compared with the high point before the Franco-American counter-offensive began. The close was nervous, 1c to 2½c under yesterday's finish, with August $1.50⅝@1.50⅞ and September 1c to 1⅜c off at $1.51⅞ to $1.52. Oats lost ⅝c to ⅞c net. In provisions the outcome ranged from 2c decline to 15c advance.

Bearish sentiment due to war news received further impetus from the perfect weather prevailing throughout the corn belt anl also from continued liberal arrivals at primary centers. The aggregate primary receipts for the week were the largest in years at this season. Besides, country offerings were generous.

Oats declined with corn, but the selling was of only a scattered character. Pessimistic Canadian crop news operated as a restraint.

Strength in the hog market gave some firmness to provisions. Advances, however, were checked by the bearish action of grain.

MOSTLY UNUSUAL

Only fifty-eight emigrants left Ireland last February.

Membership in Austrian trade unions has decreased 150,000.

Of 317,000 miners in the mines of South Africa only 32,000 are white.

The London and Northwestern Railway of England has offered spare land by the side of its line for food plots.

One hundred and fifty women have passed through the London (Enland) County Council courses as inspectors of army canteens.

Nitro-strach, more compact than the allied nitro-cellulose or gun cotton, seems to promise great efficiency as a blasting explosive.

The woman hod-carrier has reached New York. On the job she must wear white trousers. Hatpins, hairpins, and talcum powder are taboo.

A western salesman drives around the country with a farm tractor loaded on a truck, gives demonstrations of both and takes orders for either.

Winnepeg, Can., was practically without a fire department recently. 160 firemen having struck because the council refused the demands of the electricians and water works men.

A new excuse for watering milk has just been given out by a British farmer. He asserted that without his knowledge his son had filled with water a bucket which his cow had kicked over. A fine of $200 immediately was forthcoming.

TO RESTICT LICENSES

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Because advantage has been taken of the blanket license permitting goods to be imported from Canada into the United States, this license has now been revoked as to shipment of articles on the list of restricted imports on and after today. The importance of keeping ocean-going tonage for war purposes and the more essential imports, has shut off, to a large extent, the importation of many commodities formerly brought into the United States from foreign countries. To evade these restrictions importers have been shipping extensively to Canada and Newfoundland whence these goods have been shipped, with those of true Canadian origin, into the United States. The new ruling which was adopted after consultation with the dominion degovernment, will require special import licenses for the shipment of all articles, the importation of which from other countries has been restricted, when brought into the United States from Canada and Newfoundland.

$5,000,000 FOR JUDGE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 20.—One week hence Judge Robert W. Bingham of this city will be made $5,000,000 wealthier than he is now. On Saturday night next week, one year after his wife, who was Mrs. Mary Lily Flagler, widow of Henry M. Flagler, the Standard Oil multi-millionaire, died, the money will be paid over to Judge Bingham, but he will be cut off from from participation in any other part of the estate left by his wife, which is estimated to be worth all the way from $65,000,000 to $130,000,000.

The $5,000,000 settlement will not be the result of a court contest, but is the carrying out of an ante—nuptial contract, made shortly before Judge Bingham and Mrs. Flagler were married in 1916, and which was filed as a codicil to her will.

MERMAIDS TO CONTEST

PORTLAND, Or., July 20.—The Multnomah Athletic club of this city has completed arrangements for the women's national fancy diving championship which is to be held at the club tday under A. A. U. auspices. The present titleholder is Miss Aileen Allen of Los Angeles. In her absence it is the general belief here that Miss Florence Meyers, a Portland girl, will acquire the title. Miss Meyers won the title in 1916 and last year was the runner-up to Miss Allen.
