The Lion's Park in downtown Huntington got a spring makeover this past week in preparation for the coming summer tourist season starting with the 31st Annual Catfish Derby starting today through Memorial Day.

Lion's Club members worked on putting up a new sign, painted by Lioness Wendy Grey, which lists all the events happening here in Huntington in 2015.

The lawn was mowed by Lion Conway Lewis and weed and feed was administered by Lion Mike Raney. Lionesses Wendy Grey and Eileen Driver along with Lion President Allan Driver sanded down all the picnic tables and painted them a gleaming white.

The paint for the picnic tables was donated by Mayor Travis Young, who when it came up for auction at the Chamber auction on May 2, announced, "I will bid on this if the Lion's will use it to refurbish the picnic tables."

Several resounding yeses were heard from the Lion's Club members present and the deal was done.

The cook shack has been scrubbed clean after its long winter sleep and is going to get a new roof in the coming weeks. Jack at J & M Country Store trimmed all the hedges and the Park looks cool and inviting once again.

Work on the park will continue through the summer with plans to also reroof the Lion's shed and refurbish the park benches.

When not being used for local events, the Lion's Park is available for weddings, family reunions or every-day picnics.

The Lion's club would like to remind everyone that dogs are very welcome in the park however they must be kept on a leash and cleaned up after by their owners, so please carry baggies for this purpose.

The Lion's Club would like everyone to "join us in celebrating summer and enjoying Lion's Park this weekend and all the weekend's to come."
