Presbyterians Of Nation Meet In Tulsa, Okla.

Dr. Daniel Poling and Dr. W. H. Foulks Among Speakers at the General Assembly.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, pastor of the Marble Collegiate church, New York City, and Dr. William Hiram Foulke, of Newark, N. J., president and vice president, respectively of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, speak to a large audience of young people in the First Presbyterian church, Tulsa, Okla., as a part of the program of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A.

For the benefit of much especially a Bible school display is shown, and a pageant showing the church history of the denomination is being staged at a greater meeting at the assembly. The type of Bible school as presented differs essentially from the usual Bible classes. Its curriculum is unusually practical and systematic and is continuous in text. There are no prizes provided for the children, the work being done and followed by true and practical years. The course of study work in three-fold, comprehensive parts, Bible history and Bible facts, and practicality of Bible facts. This is the type of school originating and conducted in the Presbyterian church of Chester, Pa. This type of school has been taken up by others and there are 100 such schools distributed over 40 states with a total enrollment of 5,000 pupils.

Important Meeting

This week annual meeting of the general committee of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. is taking place in Tulsa, Okla., and is proving to be one of the most important meetings in its history. Questions of great importance affecting the church are being considered and discussed, and many and should issues are being considered and definitely settled upon. A campaign proposed by the Methodist Episcopal church, for a church union of the two Methodist churches, was considered and referred to the committee on church unity, within the proposals from several other denominations have been put forward. Dr. E. Dwight Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, speaks of the work.

The Rev. James L. Underwood, missionary to China, the Philippines, and Korea for the last forty years, will speak on the work in the Philippines, and also for a dance following the stage incidents.

The Baker chapter of entertainers is sending the troupe through the country on what is called a good will trip and they are sending their program and a dance following in Union free of any charge. They were meeting not only the Union city but also the Cove Eastern Oregon town as well.

The Union band played a short concert on the street and then a free dance of the girls providing the Baker city program, about seven hundred local people turned out to enjoy the show and to help boost for the dance show.

Through a change in arrangements the Three Tonsil which had been scheduled for the first day of the month dance, in the morning, and the band, have will play on the second day instead of on the second day. On the second day Mr. Loney will be here with the unofficial band and on the last day the Enterprise band will furnish music for the dance.

MR. LONEY SR.

Vaudeville And Street Dance At Union Thursday

UNION, June 2 (Special)—About 75 Baker people, mostly members of the Baker chapter of entertainers, visited Union Thursday evening and put on a special vaudeville entertainment at the Union school gym. They are traveling in a used will trip and according to a report made by the secretary of the organization who had the delegation in charge they have traveled over several hundred miles of their own country, putting on their program of music in orange halls and in other community centers. Their entertainment consisted of piano numbers, monologues, skits, tap dancing, singing and oriental dances by a little six-year-old girl, and a quartet of members from the E. A. C. A. in the piano orchestra accompanied by harmonica and Hawaiian guitar music for the program and also for a dance following the stage incidents.
