TAMMANY NOW IN NEW PARK AVENUE HOME

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—The Tammany society today abandoned the famous Wigwam on 14th street which it has occupied for 60 years and moved to the temporary quarters at Park avenue.

Records and trophies of other days were transferred from the old building which is soon to be demolished.

The old wigwam was the headquarters for Boss Tweed in the days when he was at the height of his powers. The first national democratic convention held in this city was housed in the assembly hall there. The society numbers in the ranks, a mayor, a United States senator and a presidential nominee, Governor Alfred E. Smith. A more spacious home is under construction in the Union square district.

Columbia Crew Is Beaten in Try-Out

PHILADELPHIA, July 5 (AP)—A brisk breeze blowing up the course made fast times probable as the leading four-oared and eight-oared rowing crews of the country lined up today for first heats in the final try-outs to determine who will represent the United States in these events in the Olympic games.

In the first race of the day, the Bachelor's Barge club of Philadelphia defeated Columbia in a four-oared race by a third of a length. The crews were on even terms most of the way.

Lowering Money Rate In Street Sends Stocks Up

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—Lowering of the call money rate from 6 to 5½ per cent today stimulated the recovery in stock prices which set in early this week. Extreme gains of two to nearly 11 points were distributed over a broad list, with nearly a score issues moving into new high ground.

Trading showed a marked expansion in volume.

The closing was strong; continued buying of representative shares kept speculative confidence intact in late dealings and further advances of considerable scope occurred, despite some realizing.

A few of the blue chips like Case Threshing came down sharply from their peaks but others of a similar class were hustled forward, notably Dupont. Wright Aero extended its rise to 11 points and Curtiss Aero to seven. Total sales approximated 2,290,000 shares.
