PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE NORTH CHURCH STREET FROM THE NORTH LINE OF HIGHLAND AVENUE TO THE SOUTH LINE OF PINE STREET.

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon, deems it expedient and proposes to improve North Church street from the north line of Highland avenue to the south line of Pine street in the City of Salem, Marion county, Oregon with a four-inch Portland cement concrete base and one and one-half inch asphaltic concrete wearing surface pavement at the expense of the adjacent and abutting property within the said limits, except the street intersection, the expense of which is to be borne by the City of Salem, in accordance with the plans, specifications and estimates for the improvement of said North Church street, from the north line of Highland avenue to the south line of Pine street as heretofore adopted by the Common Council and on file in the office of the City Recorder, which are hereby referred to for a more particular and detailed description of said improvement, and are hereby made a part of this notice.

Written remonstrances against the improvement proposed herein may be made at any time within ten (10) days from the final publication of this notice in the manner provided by the City Charter.

This notice is published for ten days pursuant to a resolution of the Common Council and the date of the first publication hereof is the 8th day of September, 1921 and the date of the final publication hereof will be the 20th day of September, 1921.

EARL RACE, City Recorder.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

Adele yarrison's New Phase of

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

CHAPTER 168

WHAT MOTHER GRAHAM SUGGESTED TO MADGE

I docilely obeyed my mother-in-law's command and dropped into the chair she indicated. For several minutes there was no sound in the room while she sat with fingers pressed against her forehead, a habit of hers which Dicky irreverently designates as "the mater giving an imitation of being a deep thinker."

"I have it!" she said at last. "The English nobility do something like it when the heir comes of age—dance with the tenants and the servants and all that, and this will simply be an adaptation of that custom. We'll do it!"

I am afraid I looked the bewilderment I felt. I knew my mother-in-law's almost childish liking for aristocratic customs, her scrupulous insistence upon all the deference due her; but this harangue was beyond me.

"Don't sit there looking as if I had suddenly become a candidate for a lunatic asylum!" she snapped. "Of course you can't grasp my meaning until I explain it. But it's a very simple proposition. I shall go to Katie, tell her that there will be seats for Jim and herself at our table, and that after she has served the first courses she and jim must come to the table for the cutting of the cakes. And we will have her cake upon the table with ours. It is a most ridiculous
