WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Demand for wool is improved in some quarters below are for territory and in some instances actual concessions have been made to effect sales. In general, however, feel that the market is stationary due to fear that there will be concessions at the close in that a crushing force is dead. The very attractive prices named on goods in the finished merchandise operations in woolen and worsteds are holding the wool trade cautious as to the future and adequate has not been established.
