SELLING MAKES WHEAT GO DOWN

Rain in Southwest Has Bearish Effect on Chicago Board of Trade

CHICAGO, Feb. 23—Persistent selling due to rain in the southwest made wheat today average lower in price. The market closed unsettled at 3-4c to 1 58c net decline with May $1.44 to $1.44 1-8 and July $1.24 3-8 to 1.24 7-8. Corn finished half to 1-1 8@ 1 1-4 up, oats unchanged to 1-2 higher and provisions varying from unchanged figures to 35c advance.

Assertions that a wonderful improvement in the outlook for the domestic winter crop has been effected by rains in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, led to a material setback in wheat prices here at the opening, but sentiment among traders became much divided later as a result of talk that ice was forming over the fields because of zero temperatures which had followed the rain. With quotations at Liverpool and Buenos Aires showing comparative strength and upturn in prices here ensued. However, the rise brought about increased offerings from commission houses and carried values downward again during most of the remainder of the session.

The fact that Chicago wheat prices were so high as to encourage shipments here from Kansas City was responsible for some of the late selling. Note also was taken of an increase of 1,642,000 bushels for the week in the world's available supply total. New high prices for the season were reported in the corn market. Exceptance of a decided fall in the amount of corn arriving in Chicago was largely responsible. The oats market was governed for the most part by the action of corn. Provisions ruled higher in line with hog values, despite a good deal of eastern selling which grew out of closing of spreads between lard and cottonseed oil.

STOCK MARKET UP STEADILY

Largest and Most Varied of Year Influence Early Action

NEW YORK, Feb. 23. — The stock market today rose almost steadily in its early and intermediate stages to higher levels on the largest and most varied dealings of the year but fell back sharply in the final hour. The reaction followed an advance in call money from 5 to 6 per cent.

Gains ranging from large fractions to 1 1-2 points were made at the outset. Advances were extended as much as six points before profit taking and the money flurry made pronounced impression.

Many of those issues achieved highest prices of the year. United States Steel being the most conspicuous example but that stock forfeited its gain of 1 5-8 points, closing unchanged. Chandler Motor, at a net rise of 2 1-2 points and Canadian Pacific at a net of 3 1-4 points, were among the few prominent stocks to resist pressure.

Sales amounted to 1,175,000 shares.

Passing of the dividend on Republic Iron and Steel preferred because of uncertain business conditions was announced at the close of the market. Other developments of the day such as better trade prospects and more favorable railroad earnings were among the factors which gave impetus to the long accounts.

International credits were again influenced by the strength of British exchange, demand sterling making another new top at 4.41 1-4, as much as 4.42 being quoted for cables. All continental rates moved with remittances on London excepting the Belgian and Dutch bills, these reacting six and eight points, respectively. The Canadian discount continued to fall, exchange on Montreal easing to 2 1-2 per cent.
