FAMILY DISCOVERY DAY

Saturday, September 26. 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the LDS Family History Center 2625 Hughes Lane. Family Discovery Day helps people learn more about how to find out who their ancestors were and gain a deeper appreciation for them. If you know the name of at least one deceased ancestor, you can start a search on familysearch.org. Family Discovery Day includes downloads from the 2015 Roots Tech Conference, an annual family history conference held in Salt Lake City. Additional classes by local genealogists will be presented. Each participant will have the choice of attending live or recorded classes offered concurrently at 10, 11, 12 and 1 o'clock. You can obtain a Family Discovery Day program in advance near the posters at the Baker County Library, Community Connections, Family History Center, or by emailing carolgfild@gmail.com.
