PUBLIC NOTICES

Notice of the Improvement of North Summer Street from the North Line of Market Street to the South Line of the Fairgrounds Road.

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon, deems it expedient and hereby declares its purpose and intention to improve North Summer street from the north line of Market street to the south line of the Fairgrounds Road at the expense of the abutting and adjacent property, except the street and alley intersections the expense of which will be assumed by the City of Salem, by bringing said portion of said North Summer street to the established grade, constructing cement concrete curbs and paving said portion of said North Summer street with a six-inch cement concrete pavement in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor which were adopted by the Common Council on the 17th day of April, 1922, now on file in the office of the City Recorder, and which, for greater certainty and convenience and a more detailed description thereof, are hereby referred to and made a part hereof.

The Common Council hereby declares its purpose and intention to make the above described improvement by and through the Street Improvement Department of the City of Salem.

By order of the Common Council:

EARL RACE, City Recorder.

Date of first publication of this notice is April 19, 1922.

SOME THOUGHTS ON SPRING GARDENING

of all the strawberries marketed in the world. Yet a century ago, in the year 1820, a few wagon loads of Hackensack berries delivered twice a week constituted the entire supply of New York, and a period of three weeks comprised the entire strawberry season! The improvement made in this single delectable species in a century is a measure of the possibilities that make the field of horticulture a never-ending adventure to the gardener who uses brains.

He has visited Oregon a number of times.)

STOCK MARKET HAS SENSATION

Reactionary Influences Are Thrown Off—Prices Register Recoveries

NEW YORK, April 18. — The stock market today threw off many of the reactionary influences which prevailed during the greater part of yesterday's session. Prices in general registered extreme recoveries of from one to five points on dealings amounting to 1,475,000 shares.

Denials from industrial centers that the coal strie had made serious inroads on steel and iron production, continuance of relaxed money rates and the partial rally of international exchange contributed to the improvement.

Hesitancy characterized the initial trading in consequence of renewed selling pressure which was chiefly directed against coalers, steels, coppers and several of the high grade rails, notably Canadian Pacific.

Before noon, however, the list ran into higher ground under the leadership of United States steel. The stoc rose to within a n
