BEAR PRESSURE FELT BY WHEAT

Auspicious Weather Conditions on Both Sides of Candian Line Cause

CHICAGO, July 5.—Auspicious weather conditions both sides of the Canadian boundary in the spring crop belt had a bearish influence today on the wheat market here, and so likewise did late reports from Minneapolis that flour business had been cut in two. Prices closed nervous at the same as Monday's finish to 1 cent lower, with September $1.16 1-4 to 1.16 3-8 and December $1.19 to 1.19 1-8. Corn gained 1-2 a 5-8 to 7-8 cents and oats a shade to half. In provisions, the outcome was 12 cents to 42 cents decline.

Wheat fluctated rapidly within a range of about 1 1-2 cents, but averaged lower. Little was heard regarding black rust in the northwest, temperatures generally being against its rapid development. A leading crop expert was quoted to the effect that the lateness of the rust had improved crop chances.

Export demand for wheat was described as slow except that a little business was done with Great Britain. Nevertheless, New Orleans was outbidding Chicago 2 1-2 a 3c for new wheat at various points in Illinois and was getting the bulk of light country offerings in the west and southwest. However, supplies on ocean passage showed an increase of 3,656,000 bushels for last week and besides a break in foreign exchange rates tended more or less to restrict purchasing for Europe.

Prices for corn and oats displayed considerable strength. Need of rain in important corn producing territory was noted, and some export buying of corn was done here.

Provisions responded to changes in the hog market, declining when hog values lost an early advance.

FEATURES LACK IN STOCK DEALS

Mexican Petroleum is Under Constant Fire at Extreme Losses

NEW YORK, July 5.—Trading in the stock market today was dull and almost devoid of feature, aside from the pressure directed against several of the speculative favorites, notably foreign oils.

Mexican Petroleum and the A and B issues Pan-American petroleum were constant fire at extreme losses of six to 12 points. Selling of those shares was accompanied by out of town reports and later from local sources which revived familiar statements of salt water damage.

There were intimations also that relations between Washington and Mexico City had become strained over the question of recognition and remission or reduction of oil export taxes but in no authoritative quarter were these reports credited.

The acute heaviness of Mexicans was the more striking from the strength displayed by a majority of the domestic oils. The most hopeful development of the session was the firmness of rails, many of that group registered gross gains of 1 to 2 points on covering of short contracts, prompted in part by the more encouraging aspects of the strike situation.

MEN WANTED

for services as railroad machinists, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, coppersmiths, car inspectors, boilermakers, electricians, pipe fitters, tinners, car repairers, helpers, all classes under strike conditions best explained by Chairman Ben W. Hooper of the United States Railroad Labor Board, in his statement of July 1st regarding as follows:

"In this case the conflict is not between the employer and the oppressed employes. The people of this country through an act of congress, signed by President Wilson, established a tribunal to decide such disputes over wages and working conditions, which are submitted to it in a proper manner. It is the decision of this tribunal against which the shop crafts are striking.

"Regardless of any question of the right of the men to strike the men who take the strikers' places are merely accepting the wages and working conditions prescribed by a government tribunal and are performing a public service. They are not accepting the wages and working conditions which an employer is trying to impose for this reason, public sentiment and full government power will protect the men who remain in their positions and new men who may come in."

Adequate provisions have been made for the full protection of all employes, the same as old employes which have remained loyally at work. Applicants should apply to the office of the superintendent at Portland (Union Station) or to the assistant superintendent at Roseburg.
