Episcopalians Resume Evening Meetings Soon

Musical Programs Included in Services in La Grande Churches for Tomorrow

Evening services will be resumed at the St. Peter's Episcopal church here a week from Sunday when an organ recital will be given by Mrs. H. N. Ashby assisted by Mrs. P. E. Pallman, of Baker, as soloist.

The services tomorrow in the Episcopal church will also include organ numbers by Mrs. Ashby.

Following holy eucharist at 8 and church school at 9:45 a. m. the choral celebration of the Holy Communion will be held during the 11 o'clock hour. The sermon by the rector will be "Where Did She Come From?" Mrs. Ashby, at the console, will play a prelude "Intermezzo" by Mascagni, an offertoire "Consolation" by Mendelssohn, and a postlude "Victory March," by Mallard.

The Wayfarers' Guild will meet at 2:45 p. m.

Presbyterian Church

Services at the Presbyterian church will hold much of interest Sunday. At the 11 o'clock hour the pastor will speak on "Not Without a Witness," and will conduct the Holy Communion. Mrs. B. G. McNeil at the organ console will play the prelude "Absolution," offertory "Cantabile," and the postlude "March in F Major," all by Guilmant. The visited choirs, Mrs. S. H. Morgan directing, will sing "Power in Thy Mercy" by Paul Bliss. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, Jr., contralto, will sing "There is a Green Hill Far Away," by Gounod.

The evening sermon topic will be "God Yearning to Express Himself." Mrs. Leo Reynolds will play this service.

The Bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m. All ages invited. All children under school age will meet in the nurse next to the church at 9:45, where the beginners' department will hold regular sessions hereafter.

Christian Endeavor juniors will meet at 3:00 p. m. The other departments meet at 6:30 p. m. in the church.

First M. E. Church

Sunday will be observed as Rally day at the First Methodist Episcopal church school. A general assembly will be held at 9:45 o'clock in the morning in the auditorium for the program. The subject for the morning discourse will be "Why a Church?"

At the hour of evening worship, 7:30 o'clock, the new pipe organ will be installed. These exercises will be followed by an address to young people "Youth Drives the Car."

Baptist Church

The morning sermon at 11 o'clock at the Baptist church will be on "The Unknown Wind of Godliness." This will also provide the regular monthly communion service, and the Rev. F. O. Hess pastor, urges all those expecting to join the church to present themselves for membership at this time. Mr. Dolphin will play a violin solo "Consolation" during the morning service. Sunday school meets at 9:45.

At the evening hour, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. Howard Smith, of the Sunday School union, will speak. The services are open to any who are not worshipping elsewhere.

Lutheran Church

The pastor is featuring a new sermon series on "Stewardship." The special theme for Sunday morning is "God's Fourth Commandment." The Sunday School meets at 9:45 a. m. The hour begins with a devotional period followed by graded class instruction.

The Ladies' League has planned a "Bazaar" program for Sunday evening, 7 p. m. The bazaar of various countries will be dramatized by members. Brides who appear that represent Japan, India, Turkey, Finland, Slovakia, America, Norway. The public is invited.

Christian Church

The Rev. Howard Smith, of the American Sunday School union, will be the morning speaker at the Christian church of Christ, beginning at 11 o'clock and continuing the Bible school at 9:45 a. m. when plans will be presented for Rally day next Sunday.

Mrs. Clara G. Rowe, Sunday school superintendent of the Churches of Christ in Oregon, will give an interesting address on "The World's Sunday School Convention" which was held in Los Angeles last June, during evening worship, which begins at 7:30 p. m. Nick Hughes will lead in the song service.

Christian Endeavor meets at 6:30 o'clock, all divisions.

Church of God

Services at the Church of God Sunday begin with the 11 o'clock worship when the pastor will speak on "Teach Us So to Remember Our Days." In the evening at 7:30 o'clock Mrs. E. H. Akinson will preach.

Salvation Army

Captain Bert Hall, of Portland, who assisted the Salvation Army officers in Baker with a home service campaign—to carry on the relief and charity work among the needy in Baker county—will also help in La Grande with a similar effort. While Captain Hall is in the city he will assist with the meetings at 211 Fir street in the army's hall. He will have charge of the public meeting Sunday night, which begins at 8 o'clock. Holiness meeting will be at 11 a. m. and company meeting at 3 p. m.

Services will also be held on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights at 8 p. m.

Christian Science Church

Services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, corner First and Washington. Meetings are held each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock which include testimonies of healing. The reading room in the Wise-Jacobson building is open every day from 12 to 5:30 o'clock.

South M. E. Church

There will be Sunday at the First Methodist church school.

Central Church Of Christ Will Be District Host

The Central Church of Christ will be host at one of the "One-Day" conventions of the United Christian Missionary society on Oct. 24. The sixth annual series of one-day conventions of this society of the Churches of Christ in America is being held Oct. 8-26. During this time over 200 such conventions will be conducted, covering all sections of the United States and parts of Canada.

Each convention is conducted by a team consisting of a team leader, a missionary, a religious educational leader, a missionary organizational worker, a college representative and a State Missions representative. The district covered by the La Grande convention comprises Baker, Wallowa and Union counties. The local minister, the Rev. H. L. Putnam, is district director.

The convention will open at 10 a. m. The morning session will cover an address by the missionary and an open conference. The afternoon will be given to short addresses by representatives of the team. The evening session, 6:30-8:45, begins with a general banquet followed by the program about the tables, closing with an address by the missionary.
