SHARP RECOVERY IN STOCK SEEN

Extensive Short Covering Accelerates Rise—Prices Turn Upward

NEW YORK, March 27.—Stock prices made a sharp recovery in today's market after a five-day reactionary period. Further selling took place during the morning but this was easily absorbed and prices turned definitely upward in the response to the fresh buying power in some of the recent speculative favorites, which, in turn, brought about extensive short covering, accelerating the rise.

While Wall Street has been filled for several days with unconfirmed rumors concerning the outcome of the meeting of federal reserve governors in Washington, these reports were definitely disregarded by professional interests in today's trading. Many market observers have contended that the recent reaction was the natural result of an overbought condition but the rumors undoubtedly received are from traders who ordinarily seek causes for price movements outside the market. Oil, steel and equipment shares took a permanent part in the recovery.

Chemical shares were heavy at the start but recovered before the close. Trading in railroad shares was quiet and irregular.

Call money opened at 5¾ per cent and advanced to 6 in the last hour. The high rate was attributed to the withdrawal of funds from this center by interior banks incidental to the first quarterly settlements. The time money market continued quiet with a limited number of loans for two and four months securities being made at 5½. The ruling rate for prime commercial paper continues at 5 per cent.

While French francs still showed a tendency to fluctuate, today's movements were in narrower limits with the closing quotations of 6.75 cents, representing a net loss of 5 points. Demand sterling also eased fractionally to 4.68½.

WHEAT TENDENCY IS TOWARD RISE

Indications Point to Delay of Spring Wheat Making for Higher Price

CHICAGO, March 27.—Uneasiness regarding indications of delay to spring wheat seeding tended to bring about higher prices in the wheat market today. Closing quotations were firm at a net advance of ⅞ to 1¼c with May, $1.19½ to $1.19⅝ and July, $1.15¾ to $1.15⅞.

Corn gained ⅝ to 1½c; oats ⅝ to ½c, and provisions 12 to 15 to 20c.

Reasons for apprehension as to the outlook for spring wheat seeding were said to be furnished by low temperatures in the northwest, and by predictions of continued cold in that section. It was said also that less than the usual amount of summer fallowing and autumn plowing in the spring w
