WALNUT MEN TO GET GOOD PRICE

California's Crop Small With Result that Oregon Growers Benefit

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10—(A. P.)—Oregon walnut growers will receive good prices for this season's crop, it was declared at a meeting of the North Pacific Nut Growers' Cooperative association here last night. And this in spite of prospects of the largest crop Oregon has ever produced. California's crop of walnuts this season will be quite small, it is reported. Prices as fixed at last night's meeting range from 22c to 27c per pound, with Long Franquette large topping the list. Standard Franquette goods (sorted through 48-64 screen) were priced at 24c; fancy softshell, large, 26c; standard softshell (same size as above), 22c.

Prices as set by the California association follow: Diamond, no. 1, minimum size 69-64, 26c; diamond, large budded, medium size, 69-64, 25½c; Diamond, medium budded, minimum size 69-64, 25c; Emerald, No. 1, minimum size 69-64, 23c; Emerald Baby, minimum size 69-64, 18½c; Emerald, large budded, minimum size 69-64, 25c; Emerald, medium budded, minimum size 69-64, 22c. Nuts grading 69-64 include sizes up to 77-64.

Onions Firmer.

Onions were firmer all around. Oregon Yellow Globes going 10 the trade at $2.25@2.50 per hundredweight while Yakima Spanish type onions were selling about 50c per sack less. Reports from the Lake Labish district today stated that buyers were offering $2.75 per cwt. for sacked stock but that most growers were asking $3.00, carload lots f. o. b. shipping point.

Cranberries were in fair supply and were moving fairly well from $5.00 to $5.75 per 1-5 barrel box, with MacFarlins fetching the top figure. Huckleberries were also in generous supply, selling at 10c per pound.

Grapes, peaches and apples sold a little better than earlier in the week. Prices were steady on desirable stock but considerable overripe and off quality stuff was a drug.

Butter, Eggs Unchanged.

Butter and egg quotations were unchanged with the exception of medium first eggs a cent higher at 32c per dozen. The undertone in both divisions today were noticeably easier today on wholesale markets, reflecting slackening of demand for butter and a slight easing in egg prices on the New York market yesterday.

Except for an easier feeling in the lamb division, prices on country dressed meats and poultry were steady. Lambs were quoted 20@22c today, with only choice lights bringing the top figure.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 10—(AP)—The ZR-1, the largest semi-rigid air ship in the United States, arrived over Brooks field near here at 3 a. m. today.

The trip from Scott Field, Ill., required a few minutes more than 24 hours. The ship was commanded by Captain William E. Kepler, winner of the international balloon race last spring, and was manned by a crew of 15 men.

The dirigible is expected to take part in a gigantic aerial demonstration over this city Friday which will be one of the spectacles afforded visitors to the annual American Legion convention.

Rum Gang Trial Nearing The End

MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 10 (AP)—Closing arguments were begun this morning in federal court in the chilquala rum gang trial, and the case is expected to reach the jury today.

All of the seven defendants, with the exception of Don Mitchell, alleged by the government to have been the leader of the gang, took the stand in their own behalf and denied the conspiracy charge, while admitting sale and possession and other infractions of the prohibition law.

Speculation For Advance Resumed In Stock Market

NEW YORK, Oct. 10—(AP)—Speculation for the advance was resumed on a broad scale in today's stock market, the rally in high priced industrial specialties being conducted with considerable vigorous violence.

Extreme gains in the active issues ranged from 1 to 12½ points with at least a score selling at record high levels. Trading was conducted at a brisk pace, with the ticker falling 20 minutes or more behind the market by early afternoon.

The market closed strong. The number of stocks that rolled five points or more above the previous close was augmented when purchasing orders overflowed into the chain store, amusement, and public utility groups. General Motors leaped to 219¾, a new high level. Radio touched 215, and By-Products Coke climbed 12¼ to 94, a record figure. Case Threshing rose 10¼ to 305. The list in general gave the best exhibition of all around strength seen since money rates turned downward. Sales approximated 4,100,000.
