AURORA, Ill., Oct. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Sarah Barker whose father, Jefferson Hanks, was a nephew of Abraham Lincoln's mother, is dead here.

Mrs. Barker often recalled the visits of Lincoln to the Hanks home when she was a small girl, and how children of the neighborhood would come over to the Hanks home to hear the Lincoln stories.

TRADING BRISK IN FRUIT MARKET

Price Changes in Portland Exchange Are Few and Unimportant

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 26—(A. P.)—Trading was brisk on local fruit and vegetable markets here this morning but price changes were few and unimportant. Cranberries sagged somewhat firmer with bulling of real good quality obtainable for less than $6.00 per 1-2 barrel box.

Apples and pears were in plentiful supply at steady prices and concession was a little heavier than earlier in the week. Grapes were also plentiful at easy prices but quotations were not generally lower.

Dry onions, potatoes and other kinds of market roots were likewise steady with movement fairly heavy.

No price changes were quoted in either butter or eggs and both markets appeared steady on the street today.

County dressed meats were steady and unchanged. Heavyweight stock was slow to move but demand for real choice stuff was active. Nothing of especial interest had developed in poultry prices despite the publication of reports that the turkey crop this year would be at least 4 per cent larger than in 1927.

Judging from growers reports turkey crops in the western states will be substantially larger than a year with Montana's increase approaching 5 per cent, Idaho's 20 per cent, Wyoming 44 per cent, Colorado 28 per cent, Arizona 45 per cent, Utah 22 per cent, Nevada 25 per cent, Washington 25 per cent, California 25 per cent, and Oregon 20 per cent more.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Oct. 26—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"There is a larger demand for wool, more especially of half-blood quality and finer, with prices steady. Conditions of the mills are much improved and especially in women's wear lines.

"The foreign markets, both primary and secondary, are distinctly stronger; at least, to the extent of a penny a pound on Merino Tops in Bradford and on the continent. Australian markets 1½ to 2 weeks, clean basis, on Merino wools. Crossbreds are barely firm.

"Mohair is steady. The fall Texas clip is practically all cleaned, most sales being generally at 65 to 70 cents respectively for white and kid fair. Foreign markets are firm."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following quotations tomorrow:

Oregon fine and F. M. staple 1.08@1.09; fine and F. M. fine combing 1.07@1.08; fine and F. M. clothing 1.00@1.02; coarse and F. M. clothing 1.00@1.02.

Stock Exchange Irregular; Late Selling Occurs

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—(AP)—The stock market closed irregular, having absorbed its immediate setbacks the list started upward again under a new set of leaders. International Cement, Kelsey Hayes, Consolidated Railways of Cuba, PFIU, Commercial Solvent, Puntigy Baking, International Nickel and Byers were bought extensively. Late selling of high priced shares including General Motors, Radio, Atlantic Refining and Johns Manville, which declined from 4 to 6 points below the peak figures, caused much confusion near the end of the hour. Sales approximated 2,500,000 shares.
